WHAT'S GOING ON AROUND TOWN

By BILL KATZ

Governor Earl Warren, who made an early morning visit to Daly City's town hall Thursday, won the approval, if not the votes of several hundred school children.

It was easy to see from the applause and happy shouts of the small fry that a governor can almost be as popular as Hopalong Cassidy. Getting into the swing of things, Earl was soon autographing bits of paper and books for the eager children.

"He's a right guy," one tousled haired lad commented as he triumphantly waved a piece of paper with the governor's signature.

We agreed, especially when we noticed that the front of the paper was none other than a campaign poster for one Jimmy Roosevelt.

Another equally affable politico was in town just the day before. Congressman Jack Anderson, Republican representative from this district, spent most of Wednesday meeting the good folk of Daly City.

During his visit, the congressman did his best to meet just about every voter in the town.

Host for Jack's tour was Mayor Paul Green. The mayor made no bones about giving the congressman some tips on how to get the local vote. And we are happy to learn that Congressman Anderson is still "big enough" to listen.

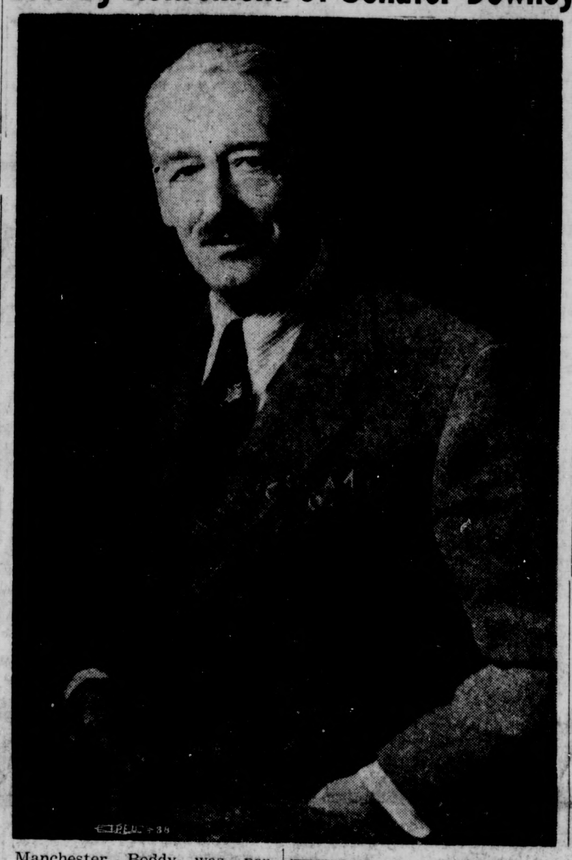
PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY

BODDY IS BEST FOR SENATE

Democrat Nominee To Fill Vacancy Left By Retirement Of Senator Downey



Manchester Boddy was persuaded to run for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate when Sen. Sheridan Downey announced that he would be forced to withdraw because of ill health.

Boddy was picked by a group of Democratic leaders to enter the campaign. Among others instrumental in convincing Boddy he should run was Downey. The retiring senator has given Boddy his unqualified backing, indeed to the point of making several vigorous speeches in Boddy's behalf.

Boddy has long been well-known in Southern California, but Northern Californians were not so well-informed on his activities at the beginning of his campaign. However, Boddy made several grass-roots tours of the northern part of the state, setting forth his ideas and outlining his plan for world peace and prosperity. He and his ideas are now quite well-known in the northern part of the state.

Boddy is publisher of the Los Angeles Daily News, a thriving liberal Democratic newspaper. But it was far from thriving when Boddy bought it in 1926. In fact the paper was deeply in the red and about as near dead as any enterprise can be. Boddy, who had just come west from New York with his wife and two sons, borrowed the money to buy the paper and has steadily increased its circulation and importance until it grossed $7,000,000 in 1949.

Boddy's main platform for election as U. S. Senator has been a plan for peace and prosperity based on CONSTRUCTION rather than DESTRUCTION. He points out that the population of the world is so enormous that there is only about two acres of tillable land for each person. The result is starvation and want in many parts of the globe. Boddy says that this starvation and want will eventually lead the world into another war and another depression unless it can be alleviated. To do this he sets forth a program of CONSTRUCTIVE effort to aid these people. Boddy points to the prosperity of the nation during the mass war effort. If we can turn our hands and minds to building CONSTRUCTION as we did to DESTRUCTION, he says, we can win the war against poverty. By helping other people get on their feet we will reap a great reward in peace and prosperity and will eventually received added returns in the goods CONSTRUCTED by these people.

To start his program he has set forth a list of projects needed in California. This list includes some

Second Fire Guts Marchi Home

What may have been the second gas fire in Daly City within 24 hours gutted the Paul Marchi home at 201 Templeton Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Marchi, who was returning home from shopping, noticed smoke curling up through the tile roof at 2:10 p.m. A moment later the venetian blinds in the front window burst into flames.

By the time firemen arrived, the flames had swept through the front room and into two adjoining rooms. Within 20 minutes hose hoisters had everything under control.

Chief Elmer Kennedy said, after a cursory examination of the blaze, that it started either from a leaking gas main in the basement or out of a pile of old paint cans in the southeast corner of same.

No estimate of damage was available at press time, although one firemen said it might run as high as $5,000. Not only was the front room completely destroyed, but most of the furniture was a total loss. Smoke damaged other rooms.

Wednesday morning a flash gas explosion blasted the Frank Ferretti home in the Concordia district.

Paul Marchi operates a gas station in the Daly City area. No one was at home at the time of the fire, nor was anyone injured.

DALY CITY MAN ASKS SUPPORT

Pledged to make the First Township court a judicial center of, and for the people, Thomas Bocci today asked for Daly City's full support in the June 6 primary.

The well known, successful Daly City attorney is seeking the position of Justice-of-the Peace, held, until recently, by Daly City men.

Born and raised in Daly City, Bocci feels he is familiar with the problems facing the average individual in the area served by the First Township court.

Bocci's many supporters, including business, civic, professional and labor groups, point out that his opponent is acquainted only with the furthest most southern point of the Township.

(The First Township court comprises Daly City, Broadmoor, Bayshore, Brisbane, Coastide, South San Francisco and San Bruno.)

Mayor Paul Green, who considers Bocci "a true product of San Mateo county and truly one of its leading sons," today stated that Bocci's qualifications for Justice-of-the-Peace are unparalleled.

Endorsing Bocci, Mayor Green, recently reelected by an overwhelming majority, declared:

Gas Explosion, Fire Destroy Ferretti Home

Ripping out the side of the Frank Ferretti home, Bellevue and Frankfort, a gas explosion set off a fire which completly destroyed the home Wednesday morning.

Within an hour, the one-story frame building, plus some of the furniture, had gone up in smoke. Ferretti estimated that between $20,000 and $30,000 in checks, cash and goods was lost. This was the money and stores he had in the home from the San Francisco bar and restaurant he operates.

No one was injured in the fire, although Mrs. Ferretti, who was sitting in the kitchen at the time of the explosion, was "badly shaken up," Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy noted.

Chief Kennedy today said the explosion occurred after an unidentified tractor driver tore up a length of gas pipe near the Ferretti home. The pipe was ripped out of the gas meter in the Ferretti basement. Within a matter of minutes the basement was flooded with gas, and a spark from the water heater set off the explosion, Chief Kennedy said.

(Last month the Fay Improvement Company was given the contract to lay streets, sewers and generally improve the Concordia district. The Farrish Co. was doing the grading at the time of the explosion.)

While an alarm was turned in at 9:08 a.m., firemen were unable to reach the blaze until 10 minutes later. When they arrived at the fire box they discovered that the

CONNECTING STREET

School Board Takes Initiative; May Abandon All Plans For New Route

The county planning commission may be left holding White street without a connecting Broadmoor-Westlake route.

This possibility was aired at the regular meeting of the Jefferson elementary school board last Thursday night.

Mike Callan, board member, suggested that the school district might solve the whole White street controversy by simply moving the proposed upper Garden Village school side west of White street. This could be done as the district has condemned 13 acres to the west which might be used as a playground for the upper grade school. As plans stand now, the playground would go in where White street is located.

Should the site be moved westward, the school district would no longer need White street. Consequently, the planning commission would have White, but be unable to use it as a connecting street, unless the board approved the use of certain necessary school land on either side of White.

Also, the commission could not use the other two proposed connecting routes, as part of this land is now owned by the school district.

Therefore, it would appear that the school board has taken the initiative in the connecting street controversy. Until Thursday night's meeting, the commission held the "whip," as they refused to give up White, unless the school board approved a route 300 feet east of White, or still another diagonal route through the new Garden Village property.

No official action was taken by

314 To Graduate From Daly City Schools In June

As much a part of June as the brides are the commencement ceremonies in Daly City schools.

This year the Jefferson Elementary school district reports a record 140 students will be graduated.

Jefferson High school also will have one of the largest graduating classes in its history . . . 124.

And at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, there will be approximately 50 boys and girls leaving the school.

The Jefferson elementary class of 1950 will hold ceremonies Friday, June 16, at the Jefferson High school auditorium. Theme of this year's graduation is "Focus on Education," and the program will show how the local school system is striving to accomplish this aim in student training.

Students of OLPH will graduate one week earlier, Friday, June 9.

The program at Jefferson High school is to be held Thursday, June 15.

Further details, plus pictures of all the graduates, will be published in a later edition of the Record.

Car Rolls Over, Lombardi Escapes

Although his car was a total loss, Michael Lombardi, Redwood City, escaped injury in an accident behind Holy Cross cemetery last Thursday afternoon.

The brother of Frank Lombardi was towing a car down Hillside boulevard when the car began to sway. Unable to bring the machine under control, the unidentified driver of the second car pulled Lombardi's automobile over in a ditch.

Lombardi's car rolled over on its top, almost crushing the driver.

The second machine escaped damage, except for a few scratches, police said.

According to officers, Lombardi was towing the second automobile to a garage for repairs at the time of the accident.

MANY CANDIDATES FILE

Total Of 38 In San Mateo County Political "Race"; 129 For State

Voters in the primary election this Tuesday, June 6, are to have a wide choice of candidates.

A total of 38 men are seeking San Mateo county positions, while 129 candidates are in the race for 11 top state constitutional offices and 24 congressional seats.

The primary election is especially important in San Mateo county as in many cases there are only two candidates for one position. The man to poll the most votes Tuesday will automatically win, and not have to go into the finals in November.

This procedure also holds true where one candidate polls more than 51 per cent of the total vote.

Daly City residents have a special interest in this year's election, as there are three north county men seeking positions. These include: Rober O. Duffy, recorder; Leo M. Ferko, assessor; Thomas Bocci, justice-of-the-peace, and Rudolph Rapsey, justice-of-the-peace.

One of the hottest county races promises to be in the election of sheriff. Opposing the incumbent James J. McGrath are four other candidates, three of which have a good chance of getting a strong vote. McGrath will have to carry 51 per cent of the vote to avoid another campaign in November.

Another item of interest to north county voters is Proposition "A." This, if passed, will return the election of supervisors to the county districts, rather than to the county at large.

In the state posts there are six candidates for governor, five for lieutenant governor; two for secretary of state; five for controller; three for treasurer; seven for attorney general and two for the non-partisan office of superintendent of public instruction.

In the congressional races there are 78 candidates for the United States house of representatives from this district. . . Jack Anderson (inc. Republican) and Arthur Johnson (democrat).

Seeking a seat in the United States senate are Manchester Boddy, Earl D. Resmond, Helen Gahagan Douglas, Richard Nixon and Albert Levitt.

Following are the candidates seeking San Mateo county positions.

Market Basket Set To Open New Store On June 9

Spurred by the formidable progress being made in this vicinity the Market Basket proprietors, now located at 5901 Mission street, have readied a new market at 6318 Mission, which will open its doors on June 9, it was learned today.

Nothing has been spared to make the two stores complete in every detail, the owners, Bud Holmes and Tony Burkard, announced as they surveyed the premises which formerly were occupied by the Safeway store.

All of the latest refrigeration equipment, suitable for a market of this type, plus new style counters and checkout systems have been installed, it was divulged by Tony Burkard.

As for the meat department, two men of long retail experience, Dan Radovich and Jack Neilsen, will be in charge. They have formed a unit termed the Safe Buy Company, and plan to handle fine quality cuts at the most reasonable prices possible.

They, too, have purchased the latest developments in cooling systems, thus assuring that all meats, fish and poultry will be kept fresh and at the right temperatures.

All of the bosses agreed that their principal aim will be to carry the particular foods desired by the residents of this vicinity, stressing the word, "particular."

They quickly added that they will have a full line of edibles but they explained that, just like every other area, there are certain items preferred here.

These will be sought out in wide variation and stocked in large quantities. This applies not only to prepared foods but to fresh produce as well.

Bud Holmes spoke up to emphasize that he and Tony have followed a similar program at 5901 Mission street, resulting in the creation of numerous satisfied customers.

Said he, "The business of mer-

WESTLAKE ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Property Owners Will Be Given Chance To Discuss Problems Monday, June 5

A discussion of the controversial Broadmoor-Westlake connecting street is expected to highlight the general open meeting of the Westlake Improvement Association Monday, June 5.

The meeting is to be held in the auditorium of Jefferson high school at 8 p.m.

All interested residents of Westlake, Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma are invited to attend.

The meeting is so planned as to give everyone an opportunity to ask questions and discuss matters of vital interest to Westlake, Dr. George Gibson, association president, said today.

In addition to the connecting street problem, the question of schools and transportation will also be brought up at the meeting.

Following the discussion, a sports film will be shown. The film will be on the Sierra fish and game. Refreshments are to be served after the movie.

Daly City Escapes Memorial Holiday Traffic Accidents

Daly City escaped any serious accidents over the Memorial Day holiday, police report today.

Only serious accident occured at the intersection of Market and First at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. The driver of one of the vehicles, Ronald Tehaney, 19, Colma, suffered a nose bleed when his coupe collided with a pickup truck.

The driver of the pickup truck, David Newman, San Francisco, was not injured, police said.

Meanwhile, the first traffic death victim in San Mateo county was a San Francisco salesman who was killed in a pre-Memorial Day picnic in a headon crash near Brisbane on the Bayshore highway.

Dead is Frank Brandis, 60. He died of a skull fracture suffered when he was thrown out of a pickup truck. His death makes the 22nd highway fatality in San Mateo county this year.

More Smoke Than Fire At Creamery

Proving once again that the old saw "where there's smoke there's fire" is wrong, Daly City blaze busters made an appearance at Jefferson Creamery, 7009 Mission, Sunday evening.

A passer-by noticed smoke pouring from the building at 6 p.m. Sunday night. The unidentified man called police who dispatched the fire department to the scene.

The hose hoisters discovered a refrigerator connection had overheated and was flooding the building with smoke.

Firemen disconnected the plug and had everything under control within a matter of minutes. Damage was negligible, blaze busters report.

Attorneys Support Judge Rapsey Bid

Backing up the overwhelming vote of endorsement given Judge Rudolph Rapsey by the San Mateo County Bar association, individual attorneys at law have volunteered as workers in his campaign for re-election.

Likewise, six labor leaders have joined the ranks of men and women from all unions in this end of the county who are staunch supporters of Judge Rapsey.

In addition, a service men's group have organized in behalf of Judge Rapsey's campaign to retain his judgeship over first township court. This group is composed of members of the American Legion, Marine Corps League, United Spanish American War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American War Veterans and the AMVETS. Joseph Madden, District Legion Service Officer, heads this group.

The right of Judge Rapsey's opponent to ask support of war veterans was challenged today by Madden and the committee of veterans as they announced their all out support of Judge Rapsey.

Madden said: "Our committee,

Local Man In Political Race

Robert "Bob" Duffy, candidate for the office of Recorder of San Mateo county, announced the basis of his platform for election, citing his background of governmental and business training as reasons for elevating him.

Duffy, a resident of San Mateo county for over 26 years and active in San Mateo county's civic affairs throughout this period, is clerk in the superior court at Redwood City. He has held top positions as an accountant and business administrator prior to his 12 years in the county clerk's office.

The candidate is a family man, living with his wife and two children in Daly City, where he is considered highly popular. His son, 20, is in the United States Navy, and his daughter will graduate in June from Jefferson Union high school. In addition, Mrs. Duffy has always taken an active interest in public affairs. She is a member of many local women's clubs and has just received her life membership gold pin in recognition for her work in the PTA.

The support comes from house-

VOTE FOR WHOM YOU WILL, BUT VOTE

Observing a policy of objective, non-partisan reporting, the Daly City Record has taken no side in the coming June 6 primary election.

We have endeavored to give every candidate an equal amount of space, an equal opportunity to express his, or her opinions. Although this paper certainly does not agree with the viewpoints of all the candidates seeking office, we believe it is for the readers to evaluate and decide what man shall be elected to the respective positions next Tuesday.

Still, the Daly City Record can not help but be biased on one point. We believe it is the duty of every citizen to cast a ballot June 6. There are no qualifying "ifs or buts" to this belief.

Every voter, as surely as the public servant he elects, exercises a public trust. He, and he alone, is responsible for good or bad government.

This is an ancient saw which has seen its way into print since the day democracy was born. But it can not be too often repeated; for the day it is forgotten, so is democracy a thing of the past.

Regardless for whom you vote this Tuesday—be sure to VOTE.

J. S. TO BE SURFACED

Boulevard To Be Resurfaced From S. F. To Colma --- Solves "Curb" Problem

Junipero Serra boulevard will be completely resurfaced from the San Francisco county line to the colma line within the next three or four months.

J. D. Johnson, advisory engineer for the joint highway district no. 10, made this announcement today. He did not estimate the cost, or the type of surfacing.

Purpose of the job is to level the road which is rapidly becoming one of the principal Peninsula highways.

Meanwhile, this plan will partially answer the recent trouble over a curb on Garden Village Lane and Junipero Serra boulevard. Johnson said the district will make no effort to restore the curb, which was destroyed recently by irrate residents who wish an entry and exit to Garden Village.

However, he noted that as part of the resurfacing, the safety island at School and Junipero Serra will be extended north beyond Kings Market.

In effect, this would make the Garden Village entrance almost useless, as traffic will only be able to enter it coming from the north, and outgoing traffic will be only able to swing south.

After the resurfacing and the extension of the safety island, the curb may be restored, Johnson said.

"The engineers are agreed that to gain the maximum of safety from the School street signals it is necessary to have a curb," Johnson asserted.

The district engineer said he had not contacted any of the officials of Garden Village.

Walter Harrison Comes Through With Another

Daly City's candidate for immortality in "Tinpan Alley" . . . Walter Harrison, 268 Los Olivos, has done it again.

The man who refuses to be old (although he admits being in the late 60's) has written another popular song. This time the number is entitled, "Fly United," which makes no bones about being a plug for United Air Lines.

Termed "pert rhythm . . . loaded with pep and vinegar" by Billboard, the composition sings the praises of the well known air line. The company was so taken with Harrison's number, that they have adopted it as an unofficial theme song.

In fact, President W. A. Patterson had the song printed and distributed, along with some pictures of the song writer, in the air lines magazine.

Possibly within the near future you may hear the melody on the radio. Harrison says they are now making a recording of the song.

Readers will remember that this same Daly City man is responsible for "Bright Eyes," a jaunty melody that has been recorded by four leading companies.

And how did Harrison come to write a theme song for United? He didn't say, but it may have something to do with his son, John. John is a mechanic for United.

Gas Explosion

street leading to the Ferretti home was torn up.

Chief Kennedy called for a bulldozer to pull one of the four fire engines up the hill. The dozer hooked a length of chain onto the machine, but this broke. Another chain was secured and the engine was dragged within 100 feet of the burning house.

Other firemen, meanwhile, with the aid of a tractor, carried hose from a block away to the flaming home.

Added to the difficulty of fighting the blaze was the constant stream of gas feeding the fire. It took PG&E men over one-half hour to turn off the gas.

"I don't believe the obstacle of the torn up road really hindered our efforts to put out the fire," Chief Kennedy noted. "However that flood of gas made it almost impossible to bring the blaze under control."

An eye witness to the fire was the unidentified tractor driver who had torn up the pipe, and the foreman on the job. Kennedy said the foreman explained the situation as:

"The driver came across the street to ask me about the pipe. We were about 200 yards from the south wall of the house. At first I figured it wasn't more than an old piece of pipe, but I decided to check just the same. I and the driver had turned to look at the pipe when suddenly the whole south wall of the house exploded in our face. A six-foot piece of studding tore past my head on one side, and a large piece of timber came from the other side. If one had hit me, I'd be a dead man today."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Ferretti was in the kitchen of her house at the time of the explosion. She was knitting a pair of sox when suddenly she was thrown from her chair across the room.

Dazed by the explosion, she picked up her knitting and instead of going out the back door, walked the length of the house to the front door. She closed the door after her and walked down the stairs before she collapsed.

Neighbors managed to save some of the furniture, but Ferretti today estimated his loss well over $40,000. He said he had lost about $3,000 in bonds, an unestimated number of his son's bonds; $8,000 in cash and checks; $12,000 for the house and an unestimated amount in liquor, stores, stock and restaurant material he had stored in the basement.

Last Friday, Councilman Fred Bertetta was in the area investigating complaints that certain homes were beyond the reach of fire trucks due to the road improvement work. At that time he reached an agreement with the contractor that such roads would be available in two weeks.

"I was investigating one home," Bertetta said today, "not the whole project."

Residents of the area today said they would question the city as to why proper precautions were not taken to assure fire lanes. Also they would like to know why the Fay company assertedly failed to determine the position of gas line before going ahead with ripping up streets.

Burlingame Gives Hempstead A Boost

Assessor O. B. Hempstead, candidate for re-election at the June 6 balloting, whose qualifications for the assessor's post includes a lifetime of banking, real estate and property assessment experience, was given an added boost by Ralph E. McClinton, Burlingame businessman.

McClinton stated that he had known the present assessor for 28 years and had always observed him to be honest, conscientious, sincere and efficient. It was McClinton's opinion that San Mateo county was fortunate in having a man of Hempstead's background, character, and proven ability holding a place in county government which required above all else, integrity and fairness to all property owners.

Hempstead's ability to conduct the business of a particularly difficult county office was indicated when he was unanimously appointed by the present board of supervisors to the assessor's position upon the death of the former assessor, McClinton said.

McClinton pointed out that it was just "plain good business" in view of his qualifications and proven record on the job, to keep Hempstead in his present office.

chandising food today has become a highly specialized problem. At one time, we bought a smattering of just about everything obtainable, but that condition has died."

With that, Tony came in to back up his partner by touching on the changes wrought during the last 20 years or more. Both of them have been in the business that long.

Tony asserted that there is a remarkable difference in the tastes of the various sections. 'What we call a 'red hot' item here may hardly sell at all across town," he explained.

Then as the four men were torn away to supervise the placement of new equipment, they all made a special point of inviting everyone to come and have a "look see" next Friday. "We are going to put on a gala show that will interest the folks," they declared.

the school board on Callan's recommendation. However, the two other board members seemed favorably inclined to the suggestion.

Upon the recommendation of the city council of Daly City, the board agreed to write another letter to the commission reiterating its earlier stand:

1. Only the route 300 feet west of White is acceptable to the board. The other connecting street route further west is completely out of the question.

2. Should the planning commission accept the first route, they must agree to put up fences along the road near school property and also provide a "tunnel" between the upper and lower Garden Village schools.

Early last week, A. J. Bodien, commission member, said the commissioners would hold out for the second connecting street, that is, the one the school board will not accept.

Daly City, on the other hand, is in favor of either connecting street, although it, like the school board, believes the first route more acceptable.

Mayor Paul Green, who was present at the board meeting, asserted that Callan's plan to give up the connecting street, if necessary, was not feasible. He asserted such a street was a must, and both the city and board should work toward the end of securing such a route.

The mayor also had a few words about five acres of land just north of the upper Garden Village school site. This property, belonging to Henry Doelger, was condemned last week by the board.

"We regret that before the board took this action, it did not come to the city council," Mayor Green said.

James Snell, superintendent of schools, said he had tried to talk to Henry Doelger "many times" concerning the five acres, and other possible school sites in Westlake, but Doelger had never kept any of their meetings. He said that the five acre site was necessary for the school district, as at some future date it might be used for an extension of the upper Garden Village school.

Mayor Green noted that Snell should have come to the city council, not Doelger.

"After all, Westlake is in Daly City, and anything concerning school sites in that tract is of interest to the city," Mayor Green noted.

The mayor went on to explain that the five acres condemned by the school board might interfere with laying out a subdivision in that area. He said no further action should be taken by the school board on the acreage, or any other sites in Westlake, until the board had met with the city commission.

The board agreed, and it was decided that the city and the school officials will hold a meeting to discuss Westlake sites, and other school sites in Daly City, June 10.

Also, a recommendation by Callan that the school board go ahead with the estimates of the cost of purchasing land for the upper Garden Village school was put off until the next board meeting.

Boddy Is Best For Senate

now under way and some only proposed. The list totals more than two billion dollars and includes roads, sewers, water systems, dams, etc. He maintains that such a program will provide jobs for the unemployed, create new opportunities for new businesses, open the road for investments by private enterprise and at the same time take care of NEEDED improvements in the state. The program will also help start the ball rolling on his world-wide scheme of CONSTRUCTION.

Boddy's background is as varied as his interests. He was born in a log cabin at Lake Tapps, Washington, in 1891. Before he was 25 he had earned his living by milking cows, clerking in a grocery store, working in copper mines, selling patented irons and peddling the Encyclopedia Brittanica in New York's Bowery. He married Berenice Maud Klotz from Winetka, Ill., on Dec., 31, 1917, and sailed for France and World War One the following day.

His war record is an outstanding one. He fought in four major engagements, Verdun, St. Michiel, Somme and the Argonc. In the battle of the Argonne he was wounded and sent back to the United States.

Shortly after the end of the war Boddy came to California with his wife and two boys, Robert and Calvin. There he launched his career as a newspaper publisher.

Boddy's sons both served in World War II, Robert taking part in the early invasions of Africa and Italy and winning a field promotion to Captain in the Infantry. Calvin was also overseas, serving in Italy as a Sergeant in the Air Corps.

Both of his sons are now farmers, operating small farms in the southern part of the state. Boddy himself is a qualified farmer. During the depression he bought a piece of land, cleared it and has made it into a paying proposition. His farming interest runs to flowers and other nursery products. He is well-known for his camellia growing and has showed a profit from his flowers and plants for many years.

During his campaigning in Northern California Boddy has made and reiterated his stand on most of the pressing problems of the day. He has pointed out the necessity for getting good water supplies throughout the agricultural areas of the state and promised to speed the construction of the Central Valley project. He told labor that he will fight for a fair labor act, and the repeal of the Taft-Hartley law. He has also definitely stated that he favors increase of social security.

Boddy has pointed out to veterans that he has always worked for their benefit through the columns of his newspaper. In 1947 he was awarded the American Veterans Committee plaque for "outstanding presentation of veterans housing problems" and in 1949 was awarded a citation by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for a crusade exposing veterans housing conditions.

Most of Boddy's ideas and policies have become well-known throughout the southern part of the state for many years as he has run a front page daily column in the Daily News in which he discusses the events of the day and his political, economic and social theories.

In his daily column, on the radio and in personal appearances Boddy has stated his views in a forthright manner. He promises support of President Truman, pointing out that his was one of the few newspapers to back the President in the 1948 campaign.

He favors the Marshall Plan, but with more control by the United States. He has long campaigned for equal rights for women. He favors the immediate repeal of the federal luxury taxes. He is solidly in favor of returning the tidelands to the State of California and advocates the removal of destructive trade barriers which hamper business and industrial development, particularly in the west.

As a campaigner Boddy has been tireless, covering the northern section of the state three times and making upward of 10 speeches a day. The presentation of his material from the speakers platform has won him many votes. Audiences have been impressed by his lack of arm-waving tactics and his sincerity. Perhaps dating from his days as a salesman, his greatest asset as a campaigner has been his ability to convince audiences of the soundness of what he has to say without having to develop a spell-binding technique.

In his personal contacts this is even more evident. No matter what the subject — Boddy convinces people of his intense interest. One of his ardent supporters has said, "If Manchester Boddy could speak personally to every voter, the election would be a unanimous one."

Around Town

"After all," he commented, "I've never been mayor."

Then there was the 72 year-old "gentleman" who made an appearance at the city jail this week. On the police blotter he listed his address as "any where."

Officers took the old fellow in tow after he had consumed an over dose of spirits.

The carouser's only comment on his arrest was the statement: "I've been drinking hard for 70 years, and will be doing the same for 70 more."

Now there's a man to watch. It's just possible he's found the elixir of long life.

A man's home is his castle. . . but only as long as he pulls the shades.

This week officers reported a Daly City gent was disrobing night after night in front of a large window. This got on the nerves of his neighbors, who promptly called the police.

Which leads us to wonder what might have happened if the man had been a beautiful blonde.

There are foreign made movies that are good and some that are pretty bag, but last week we saw a Danish film that warrants the attention of anyone interested in the documentary movie.

Title of the work was "Red Meadows," and it concerned the activities of the underground in Denmark during the last war. The actors, but for the two leads, were all taken from the street and lent and air of authenticity to the film that is often lacking in American movies. It was a splendid job of acting, and is well worth seeing.

Backs Knight

The Western Mining Council Inc., has given its unanimous endorsement to Lieutenant Governor Goodwin Knight in behalf of his candidacy for re-election.

J. P. Hall, president of the organization and publisher of the California Mining Journal, advised Knight that the council strongly admires the incumbent's fine record and praised his interest in mining problems.

"Lt. Governor Knight has a keen interest in the welfare of the small mine owner because of his long personal knowledge of the many problems confronting the industry," Hall said.

"Those of us who are trying to save California's mining are anxious to keep men like Knight in public office and we are urging all of our members in the many mining counties of the state to assist in his campaign," Hall added.

Governor Warren Tours S. M. County

Following a three-day swing through Santa Barbara, Ventura and Los Angeles counties, Governor Earl Warren returns north this morning to conclude his re-election campaign in the San Francisco bay area.

This morning the governor will be in San Mateo county, tomorrow afternoon in Santa Clara county. Friday he will visit the counties of the north bay.

Today's first appearance will be at Daly City at 8:30 a.m. He will speak from the city hall steps. At 9:15 a.m. the governor will speak from the city hall steps of South San Francisco, where he will be introduced by Mayor Adolph Sani.

Thursday afternoon and evening campaign appearances have been scheduled as follows: Palo Alto, 2 p.m.; Mountain View, 2:45 p.m.; Sunnyvale, 3:20 p.m.; Santa Clara, 4:05 p.m.; San Jose, 4:45 p.m.; Morgan Hill, 8 p.m.; Gilroy, 9 p.m. Albert Ruffo of San Jose is the Governor's campaign chairman in Santa Clara county.

Friday's campaigning will get underway with a breakfast at Sausalito at 8:15 a.m., followed by appearances in San Rafael, 10 a.m.; Novato, 10:45 a.m.; Vallejo, 11:30 a.m.; Napa, 12:30 p.m. (outdoor picnic in the park); Yountville Veterans Home, 2:30 p.m.; Petaluma, 3:45 p.m.; Marin City, 5 p.m. Fred Bagshaw, Marin county supervisor, is coordinator of Governor Warren's campaign in the north coastal counties.

A public dinner is being arranged for Governor Warren in San Francisco Friday evening, to be followed by a political rally in Scottish Rite auditorium.

Saturday, Governor Warren will make the presentation of the Walter Christie Trophy at the University of California track meet. This event is set for 2 p.m. at Edwards Stadium in Berkeley.

Sunday, the Governor will travel to Jolon in Monterey county for the dedication and blessing of the newly reconstructed Mission San Antonio de Padua.

Sunday, he will greet the initiation class of Oakland's Moose Lodge, in the afternoon and will attend a Moose Lodge dinner that evening.

At 8 p.m. Monday, June 5, eve of the primary election, the Governor will dedicate a new high school and civic auditorium at Berkeley. Mayor Laurance Cross of Berkeley will preside at the ceremony.

The Governor will conclude his re-election campaign with a statewide radio broadcast Monday night, June 5.

Bob Spillers Makes Final Appeal

In a final personal appeal, Robert V. "Bob" Spillers, Redwood City councilman and candidate for sheriff of San Mateo county, speaks over radio station KVSM Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

His final pre-election talk will feature a detailed interpretation of his famous four-point "Insurance for Good Government" and a challenge to the incumbent to explain his long record of apathy to the growth of organized gambling in the county.

Spillers declared his speech will be aimed primarily at the women voters, mothers and housewives, because they have the power this year to smash the "pattern of crime which is starting here as it did in Los Angeles and Kansas City and elsewhere. Organized gambling always leads the way for the other vice interests, narcotics and prostitution, and worse."

SOFTBALL LEAGUE PLAYERS TO MEET MONDAY TO FORM TEAMS

All men interested in playing in the Daly City Recreation department softball league this summer, are asked to attend a meeting in city hall Thursday, June 8.

Called by the recreation department, the meeting will be held in the council chambers at 7:30 p.m.

Teams will come primarily from organized groups, but anyone may sign up as an individual player to be assigned to an independent team.

It is hoped enough interest will be shown so as to form two leagues —an A and a B league.

Teams will play either in the evenings, or on Sundays depending on the players preference. Games are to be played at Marchbanks park and at Jefferson high school.

Further details will be discussed at the Thursday meeting.

The Olympic Club in San Francisco, formed in 1960, is the oldest amateur athletic organization in the United States.

Louisiana's lowest land is below sea level and lower than any spot in the nation except Death Valley.

Gelsi's Whip San Quentin By 4-3 Sunday

In a close game with San Quentin last Sunday, Gelsis' Cavern came out on top by the score of 4 to 3.

The scope of the victory can be measured by the fact that Gelsi's opponents had not lost a game when they went on the field Sunday.

Pitching for San Quentin was Schwaub, who, before running into trouble with the law, was a pitcher for the St. Louis Browns of the American league.

Hero of the game was Dotoli who came up in the last of the ninth with men on base. He drove a single to the wall, driving in Domecus with the winning run.

The pitcher, 20-year-old Vince Voto, after bad luck on two other games, in which he gave up four hits, won by scattering nine hits through the game.

Krohn helped, cutting down three runners at second. Fred Lucia hit a double, driving in two runs, while Arata got two for four. Teshaza hit two for four.

This Sunday Gelsi's meet Lucky Lager at Marchbanks at 2 p.m.

Dog Obedience Trials, Tracking Tests This Sunday

Most of the best trained dogs in the west will appear in San Francisco Sunday, June 4, for the annual obedience trials of the San Francisco Dog Training club.

The show is a benefit for Guide Dogs for the Blind. It will be held at Balboa high school athletic field, Cayuga and Onondago streets, commencing at 9:30 a.m.

As a preliminary to the main show, several dogs will demonstrate their ability to follow a scent in a tracking test which will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday. The dogs will pursue trails through the hills off Skyline blvd., about eight miles south of San Francisco.

Heading the judges for the show is Blanche Saunders of New York, acknowledged as the first lady of the dog training world. Miss Saunders is a noted author, lecturer and poodle breeder, and she has been a leader in the development of the "companion dog." The other judges, all preeminent in Pacific coast obedience training activities, are Nicholas Kay of Los Angeles, Albert Wahl and Kenneth Dyer, both from the Bay area.

Nearly forty different breeds of dogs will be present at the trials. Cocker spaniels and other sporting breeds will have the largest entry, but all of the well known breeds will be represented. There will also be many dogs of unusual breeds, including Welsh Corgis, weimaraners, rottweilers, Japanese spaniels, toy dachshunds, and others. The total entries for the show number about 150.

The dogs will demonstrate their abilities at high jumps, broad jumps, finding lost articles, discriminating between various scents, obeying hand signals, and other exercises designed to make the dog a more pleasant companion and a useful member of the community.

There is no charge for admission to the show, and the public is invited.

$402,000 Going For State Fish, Game Conservation

Members of the California wildlife conservation board dedicated an additional $402,000 to the cause of fish and game conservation during the month of May.

The sum will be turned over to the division of fish and game for land acquisition and construction of capital projects.

From its original nine-million-dollar share of state horse racing proceeds, the board has allocated a total of $8,635,201 since 1947. Members voted to set aside the remaining belance of approximately $364,000, except for administrative expenses, until a survey of potential projects in the Colorado river area is completed.

The following projects were approved at the May board meeting in Los Angeles:

Land acquisition for the lower San Joaquin waterfowl management area, Merced county, $187,000 added to former appropriation;

Improvements at Ramer lake public fishing area, Imeprial county, $50,000;

Construction of 200 shooting blinds at the Grizzly island waterfowl management area, Solano county, $18,000;

Stream improvements and flow maintenance program in Mendocino National Forest, Tehama, Glenn and Colusa counties, $25,000;

Development of a public fishing area on San Antonio creek, Santa Barbara county, $20,000;

Relocation and construction of hatchery building at Mount Shasta fish hatchery, Siskiyou county, $70,000;

Construction of the Delta fish and game operational base, Contra Costa county, $27,000.

Members of the board and the joint legislative fish and game committee transferred the sum of $120,000 from the Willow Creek experimental hatchery in Lassen county to the Darrah Springs hatchery, Tehama county. Water at the Willow creek site was declared unsuitable for fish cultural purposes.

El Toro Boat Race Sunday

The world's championship race for El Toro type boats is to be held this Sunday in the waters of Coyote Point, it was announced today.

At 10:25 the preparatory signal of two guns will be sounded. Five minutes later the race will get underway. Open to all El Toros, the race will be over a measured and marked nautical mile course.

There are only two rules for the race . . . one passenger will be permitted to each boat, and all competitors must wear approved life jackets.

The race is sponsored by the Coyote Point Yacht Club.

Hall Receives Strong Support

No other candidate, except Henry C. Hall, in the opinion of the majority of county educators, has the vital elementary school background necessary for the superintendent's office. It is their belief that now that Hall's future in the county school system hangs in the balance at the June 6 election, voters will recognize the present assistant county superintendent's 20 years of county grade school experience and retain him in the office to which he has devoted a lifetime of work.

School leaders believe that it is imperative that the next county school superintendent should be chosen on the basis of grade school experience due to the fact that over 80 per cent of the educational work of the superintendent's office is directly related to the elementary schools.

There has been widespread approval of the sincere, clean and gentlemanly manner in which Henry C. Hall has conducted his present election campaign.

"Henry C. Hall," one county educator stated, "is a teacher and school administrator and not a politician. He does not have the slightest idea of how to conduct a political campaign."

HOLY BIBLE
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Saturday I John 3 24-29
Two Latin words, rich in sentiment! To some they awaken memories of ivy-covered halls. But to many more they recall happy days in the old country schoolhouse.
Literally, they mean fostering mother. And that's what a school becomes, a third parent, preparing her children for life.
But all of us need to realize still another "fostering" parent, The Church—the earthly tutor who reveals to men the love of the Heavenly Father.
We never graduate from the Church! Sometimes we play hookey for a while. But sooner or later most of us discover that there is no substitute for the spiritual "upbringing" the Church provides.
And that discovery is the most thrilling commencement in life, for with it begins man's achievement of the highest goals in living.

YOUR DALY CITY GARDEN CLUB NEWS

By ELSIE M. GARRISON

Members of the Daly City Garden club were treated to a new experience Sunday when they and their guests were conducted on a tour of homes and gardens of outstanding beauty in this area.

Excluded from the itinerary were the large homes and grounds of the estate class, the emphasis being on landscaping, versatility and individual contributions and specialties of various kinds. It was indeed a very interesting and educational expedition, the surprise element being a contributing factor of its success, to say nothing of the gracious hospitality extended at each home!

The tour, conducted by Mrs. David Bunkley, president, began at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hunter, 438 Crocker ave. The Hunters, besides being enthusiastic gardeners, have combined imagination and true creative talent in the development of their garden. From a sand dune, which sloped down at an impossible angle to their back door these two indefatigable persons contrived a luxuriant arrangement of shrubbery and flowers and plants of all kinds.

Fairy Garden

The upper garden, with its little paths, wishing wells and bird houses, is like something out of a fairy tale, and it occurs to me that the little plot of wild-flowers, that are planted and cared for by the Hunters granddaughter, is the reason for these novel surroundings. They also make a dramatic backdrop for the patio, which, on a level with the house entrance, is carpeted with green grass, furnished with painted lawn chairs, and made irresistable with the addition of potted plants, figurines, hangings, and at night, unusual lighting effects.

The guests and members of the tour admired the Hunters garden very much, and especially enjoyed the cold drinks and potato chips so thoughtfully served by Mrs. Hunter.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Iverson on Hillside blvd. was the next home visited. Here the arrangement of the yard differed again. While the main attraction was the greenhouse, in which many varieties are propagated, the overall planning and landscaping of the home took my eye.

A pyramiding vine, proved to be a telephone support, and was at once part of the greenery, and many varieties were incorporated into the landscaping without seeming crowded. The use of shrubbery as an inclosure, accented with a wrought iron gate, was also an original note.

Other Gardens

The homes of Mr. Shirl Mollette and Mr. Harley Hooker, which are adjacent, were visited next. Both on Muirwood drive, they represented entirely different problems as to planting, exposure, etc. The domicile of the Hookers, situated on the curve of the hill, is truly beautiful, follows the natural contour of the hill, unencumbered with fences, bulkheads or trappings. The Scotch Broom, with its yellow blossoms, and borders of yellow and purple pansies, fuchsias, gardenias and lilies are only a few of the well placed plants.

The Shirl Mollettes, with a smaller front acreage, nevertheless are compensated by having a much larger rear garden, and it is here that the latest ability of the treasurer of the club is revealed as being other than just penny pinching—(apologies)! The species grown by Mr. Mollette just seem to be bigger and better, and much comment was evoked on the healthiness of his flowers and plants. The Garden, divided into two parts — one side lawn, with rose bushes and climbing varieties around its margin, and the other planted with rows of lilies stock, roses, daisies, gladiolia and fern, were at their best.

Tulip Display

A beautiful display of tulips greeted the members who arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kause, at 189 East Vista drive. They evidently do not know or care that they are blooming late, or maybe are making up for lost time, for they were very colorful. The Kauses also have a nice garden, well planned, with a nice center lawn. A large gold-fish pool is located in one corner and a very clever innovation is the artificial waterfall which drains into the pool. Waterside perrenials and plantings, as well as water lilies, gave this arrangement a natural and beautiful appearance.

We learned that the site for a pool pond should be located with all the sun and light possible. At the first sign of aphis on leaves of water lilies or plants overhanging the water, a spray should be used —but never one containing DDT or rotenone, as your fish will be killed in the bargain. Volck spray is recommended if used quite diluted. Even a strong hosing might accomplish the desired result. In order to end the algae problem, add water snails. It was advised to feed fish three times a week.

Far from finishing the tour, I will tell you next week of the personalities and places visited before the day was through, and the unexpected conclusion of a day filled with surprises!

Girl Scout Scoops

This is the best Scoop week we have had in a long time with three well written news items from Scouts. The column would like to have lots more such items about other troops in Daly City. . . so girls, don't be afraid to call me at Plaza 5-6491, or mail or bring your news to 118 East Vista Ave. . . . If you still feel shy, maybe, have your troop leader help you or ask your mother! We need your help!

First scoop today is from NANCY GOLDKUHL, Brownie troop no. 15, Mrs. Klingler, leader. . .

We had a cook-out in Mrs. Klingler's back yard and made stew. We roasted marshmallows and put chocolate and marshmallows in bananas. For a drink we had Koolade.

Mary Alice Olson, Linda (can't spell her last name), Mardell Fox, Nancy Redford, Margo Woodbury, Norma North, Sherrill Klingler, and myself were there.

The girls divided up the work, and writing this was my job.

Next item is from JOHANNA HEDWALL, troop 2, intermediate.

What we did at troop 2, Monday, May 22, 1950.

We elected patrol leaders, assistant leaders, treasurer, scribe, and a nurse. Patrol leader of patrol 1 was Loretta Berg. Assistant leader was Anne Cheatham. The scribe was Johanna Hedwall and the nurse was Carol Todhunter. Treasurer was Beverly Chan.

In patrol 2 Wilma Scott was patrol leader, Rae Alice Ward was assistant leader and Judy Hopman was treasurer. The scribe was the same one as in patrol 1. Wilma Scott cut her finger weeding in the front yard of the Scout house today. Well, that's all.

Last item for today comes from DONNO HIETT, scribe of troop 12.

The girls in troop 12 had nominations May 23. We nominated these girls for patrol 1. Darlene Haynes, patrol leader, Linda Amundsen, assistant patrol leader, and LaVerne Gardner, secretary.

The girls for patrol 2 are: Marilyn Aiello patrol leader, Joan Mandell, assistant patrol leader and Beverly Sunderman, secretary.

The girls for the whole troop are: Marilyn Jones, treasurer, Mary Louise Shiffano and Donna Hiett, scribes.

After nominations we talked about what we were going to do next week. Next week we will have Mrs. Rix, a nurse from our neighborhood. She will help us with our first aid.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

JEFFERSON

The second grade has been having an interesting discussion as well as a science lesson in regard to bees.

They have found a great many stories in their readers and science books about bees as helpers to the farmer. Many children wrote very good stories and drew interesting pictures from what they had learned in class.

The first and second grades took an excursion to the zoo this week. The first graders have been studying pets in their social studies program. The children are deeply interested in animal study, since it is related to their immediate environment. A teacher directed discussion followed after the children returned to school, and facts about living conditions and care for the animals were the prime topics.

The third graders have been studying about the food, fur, hoofs, teeth, paws, and horns of the different animals in their science program. With a good foundation study of the many animals the students asked questions and pointed out the results of their learning. The excursion provided an actual outlet for facts learned and presented the need for further study.

Not only had the two classes gained in factual knowledge, but they had also shared a group experience. Each child felt the need of good group behavior which resulted in information added to their store of knowledge, and each child had a good time.

Room 3

The seventh grade pupils in room 3 are studying Germany and Austria. This week Shirley Hooper brought a genuine Zither to class while Shirley Sharp brought a recording of the Third Man Theme, a song which features the Austrian made Zither.

Room 2

For two weeks, the seventh grade pupils in room 2 have been studying France. Of particular interest is the study of Charlemagne, the crusades, the monasteries, and the life of the nobles and serfs in the days of feudalism. Aline DeBoton, who spent most of her childhood in Paris, has helped her classmates with the pronunciations of many French words.

Room 7

On May 3rd the pupils of room 7 and the annex visited the California Historical society display at McAllister and Van Ness avenue in San Francisco. There, the classes were able to enjoy and view with interest the rare collections and preservations of illustrations and data concerning the history of California and the western coast.

Last Tuesday the fifth and sixth grades in room 7 had an interesting illustration quiz. The pupils enjoyed quizzing Dan Tomlinson, the reference committee chairman, on Mt. Cook, Australia. Carol Bloom, fifth grader, who described Mt. Shasta, and Robert Fuller, who showed and described Mt. Whitney, were also interrogated.

Music Recital

On Monday, May 15, the fifth and sixth grades surprised their music supervisor with a musical recital.

The following pupils rendered piano selections: Lee Casentini, fifth grade, played the "Spinning Dance;" Sandra Stanghellini, sixth grade, played "Bach's Minuet;" Laverne Nanini, sixth grade, played "Hungarian Melodies."

Ronald Casentini and Don Munson entertained the class with songs of Hawaii and California. Ronald's playing of "Hungarian Rapsodie" was enjoyed by his classmates. The class enjoyed singing these songs which correlate with their social studies unit.

Upper grade pupils have been feverishly preparing themselves for the Lions International track and field meet to be held June 4 at Jefferson Union high school.

Never too late to mention that Irene Wilson was awarded a second prize for her poster in the American Legion auxiliary poppy poster contest. Congratulations Irene! Jefferson school is proud of you.

CROCKER

The students of room 5 had an interesting program at their class meeting on Friday. Pat Hineline gave an interesting talk on the history of mail delivery and included many different countries. Wesley and Duane had some records to play on our new school calliphone. A new committee is planning a program for next Friday's class meeting.

The pupils of Room 6 have been given their constitution and history tests. They are now finishing the required lesson assignments in preparation of graduation.

Two students in the H5 grade transferred last week. Dixie Lee Ring moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico and Pauline Sharp to Missouri.

Room 3

Fifth grade students in room 3 have just completed a short study of the lumbering industry in California. They climaxed their study with a series of group drawings showing in color the steps from forest to lumber yard. Next we will take up a similar brief study of the petroleum industry in our state.

Room 5 P.M.

The students of the sixth grade are studying about the history of aviation. They have learned about the earliest dreams of flying like the birds, and the first attempts to imitate these flying birds.

Room 6 P.M.

The seventh graders of room 6 are finding how a budget for a family is obtained. They realize that food and shelter consume more of a family's earnings than any other two items.

In preparation for a unit on Africa in Social Studies, the children were privileged to see a movie on the Congo of Africa. It is hard for them to believe that there is such a vast difference between the culture of Africa and that of our own native country.

Room 1 P.M.

During our art lesson this week the class correlated social studies and art work by drawing some scenes on Italy. The following made particularly nice drawings: Lenita Johnson, Bob Bridges, Paul Guareglia, Marlene Johnson.

A nominating committee under the direction of Dr. Katherine C. Smith has completed a slate of director nominees to be presented to the annual meeting which will also hear progress reports on the county's new tuberculosis hospital and the annual report of the association.

A special report on local, adult tuberculosis danger incidence is also in preparation and has been termed of vital importance in forthcoming planning of the association's case finding program.

Mrs. Peter Conci, 169 Parkview, saw her sister, Mrs. Rita Land, ne Corish, for the first time in five years last week. Flying from here to Wala Wala, Washington, Mrs. Conci spent a week with her sister, who is a former resident of Daly City. Also, it was the first time Mrs. Conci had seen her new niece, Cathy, 13-month-old daughter of Mrs. Land.

Henry Doelger—builder of Westlake, has put up the first prize in the annual Saints 'n' Sinners fund raising drive this year. He will give a $25,000 home in Westlake to the lucky first prize winner. The money from the drive is used to purchase free milk for school kids.

Joe Lewkowitz, owner of the Daly City Super Service gas station, 3356 San Jose, is back on the job today after a week at home. Last week Joe suddenly got a bad pain in his neck. He went home and called the doctor. The doctor took one look, and told Joe he had better get some rest. But one week was enough for the congenial gas sation owner. Today he's back at work, although he can move his neck only one way. What's the trouble? Seems Joe is suffering from a case of arthritis. Here is hoping he gets well in the very near future.

Governor Warren Gets Demo Support

Powerful Democratic support for Governor Earl Warren in his campaign for reelection at the primaries June 6 is assured by the enthusiastic response of prominent Democrats.

Nearly every county in the State is organized for Governor Warren either with a general committee headed by co-chairmen, a Democrat and a Republican, or with a strong Democrats-for-Warren committee, or both.

Robert McCarthy, Sr., is head of the San Francisco Democrats-for-Warren committee, and Mrs. John J. Murray, secretary. In urging all Democrats to work for the re-election of Governor Warren, McCarthy said: "As Democrats, we can justly claim a large share of the credit for the outstanding record he has established. California Democrats elected Governor Earl Warren at the primary four years ago. Let's have another tremendous victory by re-electing a good governor—Earl Warren."

On Election Eve Woodman Goes East

On the eve of the primary election, Ralph E. Woodman, candidate for county assessor, yesterday (May 31) boarded an airliner at Mills Field for a trip to the east coast.

Woodman's temporary "abandonment" of his campaign for the county post is the result of his pride as a father. His son, Gordon, graduates Friday as an ensign from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, the culmination of four years hard work in which the elder Woodman has taken an intense interest.

"I feel that I owe it to my family to take this brief leave from my campaign and I trust that my friends will continue to carry on for me during the few days absence on the eve of election," Candidate Woodman said as he left. "I have tried to personally carry my campaign into all sections of the county but I know that there are many people which time has not permitted me to see and I trust that all voters will give me consideration," Woodman added.

Woodman, who has been city clerk and assessor of San Bruno for the last ten years, is seeking election as county assessor on pledges for equality in tax appraisals throughout the county, establishment of friendlier relationships between taxpayers and the assessor's office, cooperation with the press of the county so that the individual taxpayers may be advised of trends in property values, and better cooperation with other county officials leading toward efficiency in county government.

Woodman's campaign has brought endorsements from persons in all walks of life throughout San Mateo county. He has received the unanimous endorsement of the United AFL Committee of San Mateo county, and doctors, bankers, lawyers, political leaders and businessmen have added their approval of his campaign which has been forthright and clean, thereby adding to his reputation of honesty and integrity.

Three-day S. F. Bach Festival This Week End

Choral, vocal and instrumental music by Johann Sebastian Bach will be presented in San Francisco's fourteenth annual Bach Festival, June 2, 3, and 4, which this year commemorates the 200th anniversary of the death of the composer.

The three concerts of the Festival, under the general musical direction of Waldemar Jacobsen, will be presented at Calvary Presbyterian Church, Filmore and Jackson streets.

The opening concert, Friday evening, June 2, will feature the San Francisco Boys' Choir, directed by Madi Bacon, the San Francisco Bach Choir and Cantata Singer, directed by Waldemar Jacobsen, Richard Weeks, organist, Elmer Dickey, tenor and Byron Graber, bass. Miss Macon, who is head of the Music Department of the University of California Extension Division, will direct the Boys' Choir in a group of chorales.

This organization, now making its first appearance in the San Francisco Bach Festival, has attracted the attention of San Francisco music circles with its performances with the San Francisco Opera Company.

Bach's Cantata No. 78 "Jesus, Thou My Wearied Spirit," will be presented by the twenty-four Cantata Singers, with Mr. Dickey and Mr. Graber as soloists. The program will close with the Sanctus of the B Minor Mass sung by the San Francisco Bach Choir.

Saturday evening's concert will present Harold Mueler, F. A. G. O., Dean of the Northern California Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and organist at St. Luke's church, in a recital of Bach's organ works. Sharing the program with Mr. Mueller will be Yaada Weber, flutist, who will play the Sonata in B Minor, and Mary Louise Striegler, soprano, and Frank Pureel, bass, who will sing Bach's Cantata No. 152 for two solo voices, "Tread Thou the Path of Faith."

Climax of the Festival will be the Sunday evening performance of the complete B Minor Mass by the San Francisco and Sacramento Bach Choirs, soloists, and Festival orchestra, under the direction of Waldemar Jacobsen. This will be the first complete performance of the mass in the Bay Area. Soloists will be Erika Nalos Kurth, soprano; Velna Lou King, contralto; James Schwabacher, tenor; and Frank Pursell, bass.

Jacquelyn Hohl To Exchange Vows With Bernard O'Shea Saturday, June 17

Another June bride was added to the Daly City roster this week with the announcement that Jacquelyn Hohl will wed Bernard O'Shea at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church at 10 a.m. Saturday, June 17.

A surprise bridal shower was given Jacquelyn by her maid-of-honor, June Lauricella, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hohl, 61 Liebig, last Saturday.

Some 45 friends of the bride were present in the home of her parents. The house was beautifully decorated in the traditional June flowers, with a white satin altar setting off the buffet supper.

Jacquelyn is a graduate of Our Lady of Perpetual Help elementary school and past president of the YLI. She graduated from high school in Burlingame, and is presently employed in a San Francisco office.

The groom resides at 116 Jewel street, San Francisco, and is employed by PG&E.

After the wedding and honeymoon, the couple plan to reside in Daly City.

Louis Dematteis Unopposed For DA

Louis B. Dematteis, San Mateo county's youthful district attorney, has the rare distinction of running unopposed in his first election to one of the county's highest political posts.

His friends credit Dematteis' many civic activities, and his popularity with members of a large number of organizations, including that of his own profession, for the fact that he has no opponent.

However, Dematteis is hoping for a high complimentary vote at the June 6 primary election.

Why Henry Hall Left San Bruno Elementary Schools

As voters of San Mater County you are entitled to know some pertinent information, regarding Mr. Henry Hall, that has not been presented in his paid political ads.

Some of us in San Bruno feel that we know Mr. Hall, his record and his background best. Let's take a look at it.

Two years before Mr. Hall resigned from the Superintendency of San Bruno Park Elementary Schools it was apparent that friction was brewing between him and his teachers.

The climax to the whole situation occurred in the Spring of 1944 when the San Bruno teachers requested, and were granted, a meeting with the Board of School Trustees to air their grievances about Mr. Hall.

The teachers claimed that:—

1. Mr. Hall lacked ability to get along with people and create harmony within the schools.
2. That Mr. Hall was uncooperative and lacked leadership.
3. Mr. Hall did not stress the fundamentals — reading, writing and arithmetic.
4. Lack of discipline within the schools was very apparent.
5. The changes from regular report cards to hand written notes to parents as ordered by Mr. Hall caused much criticism and confusion.
6. Mr. Hall showed favoritism to certain teachers.
7. Mr. Hall failed to supply certain teachers with necessary books and supplies.

The culmination of this meeting was that at the next board meeting Mr. Hall tendered his resignation.

Does it appear to you that Mr. Hall has the vital elementary school background and the ability necessary for the County Superintendent of Schools office? If Mr. Hall could not get along with, or lead approximately thirty teachers in one district, what could he do with many teachers and principals in many districts all over our County?

(SIGNED) HUGH B. TICKLER

Member of the San Bruno Elementary School District for the past nine years and reelected unanimously for three more years.

THIS BID FOR COUNTY DICTATORSHIP

Vote NO ON PROPOSITION A

At the June 6 Primary Election

SAN MATEO COUNTY DOES NOT WANT AND DOES NOT NEED A DICTATOR to run its County Government. It needs a skilled business executive to administer its $12,000,000 annual expenditures and it will get one on Jan. 3, 1951 when a COUNTY MANAGER will be appointed under the terms of the Charter Amendment approved by the voters in November 1948. PROPOSITION A would nullify this program. INSTEAD, it would elevate the County Executive to be a DICTATOR over the entire County Government. Under Proposition A, ONE MAN will CONTROL $12,000,000 BUDGET AND EXPENDITURES.

APPOINT COUNTY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS — Health and Welfare, Recreation, Civil Service, Planning and Fiesta.

CONTROL 1000 COUNTY EMPLOYEES through a handpicked Civil Service Commission.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

"Here is the general gist of a speech made by a candidate running for sheriff in San Mateo county. Don't know why the item made an impression on me, except that it states what so many people feel. Here it is'

"Gambling and gangsterism go hand in hand. The only reason they can operate outside the law is because someone inside the law is either stupid, lazy or being paid off."

Most of this community doesn't come up against gambling reality themselves, but we all know that the gambling here has been a bone of contention in the valley. Friends have fallen out, legal suits have been brought, and all of this has come about because gambling has been poked under our nose, not because we have wanted it brought in. The small amount of money that gambling interests might donate to any of the community is far outweighed by the amount of trouble it causes. The division of thought is brought about by those who feel that we may as well make the best of a situation, and get any good out of it we can, as against those that feel that the thing should be wiped out entirely.

So far, the fight has remained among those that have taken a more or less political part in the valley development. Many feel we can take gambling or leave it alone, as long as it doesn't disturb the even tener of our lives. When a question like this gets to the point where it causes discord in community organizations, and causes neighbors to stop speaking, then things have reached a sad state indeed.

There are so many things that need attention in here if we are to better ourselves, and those things will mean work and a united effort. Divided as we are, we are a headache to the county and a misery to ourselves.

The sanitary board has given the South San Francisco Scavenger Co. another 10 year contract for our district. The Scavenger Co. will pay the district $150.00 a year on the contract, and post a $5,000.00 bond.

Boy Scouts

Our Boy Scouts are in the news again. It was found that the Bayshore Parents club that was formed to sponsor the boys was not acceptable. Parents in the valley banded together for this club because they did not want to see the scouts disbanded in our community.

The Improvement club has now agreed to sponsor the boys, and some of us are optimistic enough to feel that it will be a very satisfactory arrangement. Dan Blaga, new scoutmaster, spoke at a recent meeting of the Improvement club, and pointed out the responsibilities confronting a sponsor. The matter was discussed at length, and plans are already in the making to really give the boys a firm backing and support.

People

Mrs. Nellie Throne, outgoing PTA president, gave a luncheon last Wednesday for members of the retiring executive board. The new PTA executive board will take over officially June 2.

Mr. F. Holcomb, father of Harry Holcomb of 151 Acacia St., suffered a severe stroke last week that paralyzed his entire right side. He was taken to Letterman hospital.

Mrs. Ina Root, sister of Jimmie Throne, week-ended with the Thrones, in company with her son, daughter-in-law, and granddaughter. The Roots are from L. A.

The Mr. and Mrs. club threw themselves a pot-luck dinner last Saturday, and people came early and stayed late. At 2 a.m. they were still going strong.

Robberies

We have had two robberies in Bayshore in the last 10 days. The Baptist church was broken into and the reverend's desk and cupboards were rifled. Nothing was taken but cash, and they estimate the loss at about $15. It is generally believed that it may have been youngsters in this case.

The other robbery was the Republic restaurant. We could get no close estimate of the amount that was taken, but the music box was broken into, and some additional cash besides was missing.

Girl Scouts

Troop no. 45 of the Girl Scouts went on a cook-out (campfire stew and salad to you) last Monday. Fourteen girls took part, and for desert they had banana boats. Now that's a new one on me, so I got the low-down. You take a banana, peel it, then cut it in half and scoop the center out. Take a half a Hershey bar and a couple of marshmallows, stick them in the hollowed out space, put the banana back together, and lay it in the hot coals. If that recipe doesn't add three pounds, you haven't followed directions.

Bobby Anderson turned 10 on Memorial Day, and Den 3 of the Cub Pack turned their regular meeting into birthday highjinks for the occasion.

The Filarski's made a trip to Hanford over the week-end and brought Allen's two nieces, ages 4 and 5 home with them. That will keep you out of mischief for a while, Alene.

There will be a meeting of the Voters League Thursday, June 8, at 8 p.m.

The service Sunday morning at the Baptist church will be "Unforgettable Experience." The evening service will be Spiritual Gifts."

Everyone is electioneering right now, and well they might be, with election just a couple of days off. There are so many people running for so many things that the whole thing is just a little confusing to this weak mind. I have one recommendation. Use a system, close your eyes and stab, try to meet the candidates, or any old method at all, but use the thing that makes us proud to be Americans. Use your vote.

Colma General Meeting Scheduled Tuesday, June 13

The first general meeting for the new 1950-1951 year of the Colma PTA will be held at the Colma community center on Tuesday, June 13, at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will open with the pledge to the flag. The song, "America The Beautiful," will then be sung, followed by the collect.

Mr. James L. Snell is to give greetings to the first meeting of the 1950-1951 year, and say goodbye to the 1949-1950 year. Another interesting speaker will also be there.

Immediately following the business meeting there will be a small program supervised by Mrs. Thomas Blanco. Julia Ann and Richard Landi will play a duet on the accordian, and then each will play a solo. Scout singers from troops 17 and 18 will sing under the direction of Memory Gomez.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

And by way of correction . . . the singer at the installation dinner was Mrs. Dora Bianchini, not Mrs. Dino Agresti as earlier reported.

Clean Record Equals Probation

Thanks to a previous clean record, Louis Marich, 38, self confessed Colma bookie, is on probation today.

He appeared before Superior Judge Cotton Monday, and was placed on a year's probation and ordered to pay a fine of $250.

Once a student at the University of Colorado, Marich intended to become a teacher. He was arrested April 12 in a police raid on a bookie layout in a cocktail lounge at 695 San Mateo avenue, San Bruno.

Officers said he was employed as a ticket writer. Marich pleaded guilty.

COLMA --- BROADMOOR GARDEN VILLAGE

Colma P.T.A. To Meet June 13

Due to elections, the regular meeting of the Colma PTA is to held June 13, NOT June 6 as planned.

As usual, the meeting will be at the Colma Community center, Dunk street, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

All members are asked to be present as Mrs. J. D. Hopper, new Colma PTA president, will speak of many things concerning activities of the PTA during the months ahead.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Hopper and a committee of three attended the 17th district PTA school of information May 18. The ladies learned many things which will help them to keep the PTA abreast of the changing times.

Also, May 24 the finance committee met and the budget was completed for the coming year.

LOSING GAMBLE

If you habitually jaywalk, and haven't yet met with an accident, it simply means that so far you gambled your life and won. But last year, points out the California State Automobile association, 305 jaywalkers in California gambled their lives and lost. Think before you take such a desperate chance; then walk to the nearest crosswalk.

Every tree, shrub and flower to be found in North or South America has its prototype in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park.

Lutheran Mothers Club To Meet

Especially mothers of Sunday school pupils are urged to be present at this meeting, whose business will include plans for the forthcoming Sunday school picnic June 11.

Next Sunday the Trinity season of the Christian church year is ushered in. Lutheran church of Broadmoor will have as its theme "In Trinity Sunday, "The Triune God With Us," Rev. Max Zschiegner, pastor, announces. The unchurched public is invited.

Cleofes Nunez Dies Tuesday

A resident of Colma for the past 27 years, Cleofes Nunez, 59, owner of Estrada's Spanish Kitchen, 7440 Mission, died of a heart attack Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Nunez was in the dining room of the establishment when suddenly she began to bleed internally. Rushed to Junipero Serra hospital, she was pronounced dead on arival. She had been under a doctor's care for some time.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph R. Nunez; two daughters, Mrs. Loretta Gallegos and Cleo Nunez; two brothers, Vincent and Manuel Estrada, and seven sisters, Mesdames: Cruz Payne, Louise Aguilar, Josephine Cruze, Carmen Western, Delores Forkel, Estefana Gonzales and Anna Hallahan.

Rosary will be recited for Mrs. Nunez today at 7:30 p.m. Funeral services will be held at the W. C. Lasswell chapel at 8:30 a.m. Friday, thence to Holy Angles church where requiem high mass will be recited at 9 a.m.

Cub Pack No. 86 Welcomes New Den Gives Out Badges

Welcoming a new den, and giving several cubs new badges was the principal business of Cub Pack No. 86 at their regular Thursday evening meeting.

Six new members to the Pack joined in Den No. 5. This new den is under the leadership of Mrs. Dan Anderson. Members of the new den include: Dennis Golobic, John Skoverski, Dick Anderson, Ted Mackenzie, Ronald Rose and Bob Perdue.

Highlight of the meeting was the awarding of the coveted Webelow badge to Bill Feeter. Bill is the first cub in the Pack to have won this badge. The badge means that Bill is no longer with the cubs, but is now qualified for the scouts.

Other badges given cubs last Thursday include the wolf badge to: Barry Beniner, Richard Drake, Tom Sutter; Bear-Billy Spry, Ronny Wold, Bill Adams, Bill McCann, James Gustafson; Gold Arros—Jed Cyr, James Kiner (2), Dick Tominson, Garry Cowden, Ronny Wold.

Silver Arrows—James Kinner, Garry Cowden, Ronny Wold (3); Bobcat—Bob Nolle.

Meanwhile, last Saturday the lads made a tour of Hamilton Air base. During the tour they had an opportunity to see the new jets in action.

School Plans Now Completed

Plans for the new El Portal del Sol school are now in the hands of the county superintendent of schools.

Reports from the state are that it will be one of the outstanding units in the country for cerebral palsied. The school is to be an addition to the one now located on the Mills estate at Millbrae.

The new building will have trilateral lighting, with heavy redwood shakes on the roof. The grounds will be divided into areas for different purposes, and will be covered with grass, pavement, and sandbark. A redwood board fence of louvered construction will surround the grounds.

March, 1951, is the latest date by which the school will be ready for occupancy.

S. F. Foreign Trade Zone May Be Enlarged Soon

San Francisco's foreign trade zone, first on the Pacific coast, may be doubled in size if an application for a permit to take over all of Pier 45 for Zone operations is granted. Only the Westside of the pier is now used.

The state board of harbor commissioners recently with the foreign trade zone board of the department of commerce in Washington.

Among recent developments in the foreign trade zone is the assembling of Swedish furniture, and the housing of livestock.

AROUND THE VILLAGES

with Verna Duste

The meeting will please come to order. All members present? There is a motion before the house that, in view of five babies being born on one block in three months, that "Midway ave." be changed to "Maternity Row." All in favor? Fine!

By the bye, remember the contest we ran last week—with an old board member as the "mail-in." Well, here's the "Contest of the Week."—"What best to do with old board members"—prize, one old board member. Oh, you think all this is silly? Wel, how do you propose I get rid of a garage full of old board members?

But enuff of this silly chatter. A very happy birthday to our own charming first lady of Broadmoor, Mrs. Thomas Jenkins (you can call her Ane, and a darling she is, too!) who celebrated her birthday with her family on May 31. Many haps, Mrs. J.!

Best Wishes

Best wishes, too, to Pat Dillon, who celebrated her birthday last week with a party for friends. Still in the birthday department is our glamor girl Maryan Patey, who celebrated May 28 (tried to do it in secret, too, dern her!)

The Pink-and-Blue Dept. includes for the week two Midway additions. (Gee—the first grade for 1956 is really going to be strictly Tract Four!) The Stedmans proudly added another boy to their collection of two, David, who calls May 25th Happy Birthday, and who weighed 6 lbs, 12 oz.

Genevieve Angela McGuirk is the impressive handle of the new little miss belonging to the Edward McGuirks. She arrived May 18th, and weighed 6 lbs. 9 oz.

Vi Murphy tells us that her block is a pretty happy one right now—what with all the new progeny, to say nothing of a few more anticipated. Pretty little Mrs. Kleppe is all excited over her husband's return from the sea. Ah me!!

Vacations

Speaking of "coming back," we'll bet a big hunk that you thought vacation-time was just beginning—well, you got fooled. Some folks stole a march, and are just coming back from theirs. Larry, Stella and Ken Magoon just got back from a week at Santa Cruz, one place you can always get some sunshine, eh?

The Larry Gallmans are just back from Texas after a lovely two week's stay. More sunshine!

Of course, Broadmoor had its share of sunshine last week (no, Sam, not for the week—for the YEAR!)

Natch, you all got your letters from the Association, asking for your vote on annexing the new tracts. Now, don't throw them away! Hang onto them until the collector comes around to pick them up. Speaking as one who has done some of the collection in days gone past, it's darn disconcerting to try to collect something they don't have from someone who wants to give it to you (Now on what turn did I get lost?)

Anyhow, in the Sorry-to-Hear-It-Dept. Mimi Green is missing two tonsils as of recently. Clearing up fine, Mimi? You remember Larry, otherwise known as "Daddy"—the Green took one of the prizes in the Christmas contest, with their lovely imaginative display outside their home. La!

Canasta

Friday, June 9, will be a big day for the Canasta Fiends (name unofficial!) at the Colonial. As well as the usual lovely dessert and coffee, and the also-usual lively game, the prize will be given for the tournament winner, and at last report, three of the girls are pretty close, so it means as many of us should show up as possible, to witness the presentation as well as to have ourselves a pleasant afternoon.

The Auxiliaries of the VFW and American Legion are resting their weary tootsies — and well they might, for, according to all reports, both groups did wonderfully well on their sales on Poppy Day. It kinda warms the cockles of your heart to see the wonderful work these girls are doing, and the way they give freely and unstintingly of their time to the good works before them!

Ah yes—summer is almost upon us, the smell of paint is in the air, the time has come to change the oil in the car, and at such times one thinks nostalgically of Louie the Louvaine Gopher — and why not? After all, aren't his grandchildren tenanting our side yard? How 'bout some names for them? Nice ones, of course! Selah!

Safeway Strike May Spread South

The strike that has tied up Safeway stores in the Daly City-San Francisco area for the last few months may spread to the 14 Peninsula Safeway stores.

As extension of the strike threatened, AFL teamsters said they would not recognize picket lines "wherever Safeway has met, or is willing to meet the retail clerks' union wage scale and standard working conditions."

The crux of the long standing strike is whether the union should represent store managers.

State Employment Up During April

Employment was up in California during April, but unemployment is still a problem, employment department director James G. Bryant said today.

There are now approximately 374,000 persons seeking work in California. However, this represents 79,000 fewer unemployed than in March.

Bryant estimated 3,976,000 Californians had jobs in April. The record height came because of more employment in agriculture, manufacturing, food-canning and heavy industries.

CHAIRMAN CARL VINSON, WRITES ABOUT ANDERSON . . .

"I very deeply appreciate the outstanding work he has done with the Armed Services Committee during the 81st Congress.

Jack Anderson secured the adoption of a law which will save this country millions of dollars in peace times, and perhaps billions in case of war, by setting up a single supply catalogue for the Armed services and civilian agencies.

I served with Anderson on the old Naval Affairs through the war years, and know of the fine job he did there. Now, as Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, I want to express my appreciation to Jack Anderson, and say that I look forward to working with him on our great defense problem.

I have known many Congressmen in my 36 years in Congress, but Jack Anderson is one of the finest."

Only 50 Per Cent Expected To Vote

Approximately 50 per cent of the 4,925,369 state registered voters are expected to turn out at the polls June 6.

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan estimated that this would be a two per cent drop over other gubernatorial primaries.

However, a higher general showing can be expected in November. Usually in the finals about 62 per cent of those registered vote. In 1948 it rose in an al ltime high of 80.54 per cent.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

Daly City Man

ty of presenting to you my unsolicited support of your candidacy for Justice-of-the-Peace for the First Township.

"I am proud to endorse you, for I know you are definitely an outstanding man for this important judicial post. We need men of your calibre. Your legal training, your natural judicial bent, your genuine civic interest in our community highly qualifies you for the office you seek.

"Count on me and my friends to back you to the limit."

Meanwhile, the citizens of Broadmoor today were reported united behind the candidacy of Bocci.

One Broadmoor official explained the support of his community:

"We, in the northern part of the county, have too long gone without any real voice in county government.

"Here is an opportunity to elect a man who will do everything in his power to see that we get fair representation with the southern sections."

Bocci, whose family has been active in north county business affairs ince 1899, is a graduate of the Jefferson school system. From high school he went on to receive a law degree and scholastic honors at the University of San Francisco.

Upon graduation he entered the office of Judge John J. Fahey Jr., a Daly City attorney who until recently held the position of First Township judge, and who has overwhelmingly endorsed Bocci.

A resident of Broadmoor, Bocci is married to the former Melania Bertellotti, and the father of two children.

This background, coupled with seven years of law, gives Bocci the experience and understanding of north county affairs that his opponent so woefully lacks.

Briefly outlining his platform, Bocci today reiterated the points that have gained him the support of every facet of north county life.

"I stand pledge to discharge the duties of office without fear or favor, in a fair and humane manner without regard to the influence of wealth or position of litigants," Bocci said.

"I am pledged to an active part in all civic functions dedicated to preventing juvenile delinquency.

"Furthermore, I am pledged to expedite the end that all cases will be tried immediately."

Cognizant of his opponent's claims that only an elderly man can be a judge, Bocci noted:

"The truth is, that the office is intended by law to be held by younger men, particularly attorneys under 40. Governor Warren, in many appointments to the courts, has endeavored to comply with the above rule. I cite the appointment of Judges Weinberger, Perry, Cullinan of San Francisco . . . all men under 40.

"Also, the records of the court show that 85 per cent of the people coming before the bench are between 18 and 40. Who, then, is more understanding of this age group than a man of similar age who has been educated in the time of the litigants."

In closing, Bocci noted a familiar saying which he believes answers once and for all the claim that a young man can not be judge.

"We are always old enough to fight a war, but too young to hold an office."

Make Paper by Hand

Hand paper making is still a sizable industry in Japan. A relatively modern machine can produce as much paper in 20 minutes as one man can make in a year, but the hand products are superior in strength and beauty.

representing the leading service groups and their auxiliaries, made careful screening of records of all candidates and learned that the opponent to incumbent Judge Rapsey has absolutely no war service record of any kind. On the other hand, Judge Rapsey is a World War I veteran and served on all branches of civilian help in World War II. He, not his opponent, warrants the full support of all veterans and their families."

The labor leaders who ask the ranks of labor to vote for Judge Rapsey issued a joint statement, saying:

"The principle of true Americanism and the concepts of honest public service entitle Judge Rudolph Rapsey to every consideration from labor at the polls on Tuesday.

"We are proud that we can point to Judge Rapsey as a man who in his early days of struggle earned his livelihood as a member of Boilermaker's Union No. 7, and Carpenter's Union No. 22, pulling himself up by his own boot straps to attain an education in law and then, through humane understanding, carrying on the duties of judge in a manner which merits the respect and support of all decent citizens."

The attorneys, who stress the fact that the bar association endorsed Judge Rapsey's candidacy by 54 to 3, the 3 votes going to his opponent, are also carrying on an intensive campaign for his re-election. Attorneys working in his behalf are:

Charles N. Kirkbride, Gerard Wagstaffe, Raymond Daba, Antonio Gaudio, Richard P. Lyons, Saul N. Ross, Harold H. Elkins, Paul Demare, Joseph F. O'Malley, Earl C. Mahoney, James O'Keefe, Jr.

James O'Keefe, Sr., Wayne Millington, Hugh F. Mullin, Jr., Edward J. Ryan, Michael Aaronson, Melvin E. Cohn, John L. Waldier, Cyrus J. McMillan, Marvin Colangelo, Carl W. Anderson, Arthur J. Harzfeld, Chester W. Lebsack.

Dennis Hession, Benjamin B. Knight, George Smith, Jess Hession, Joseph W. Robb, Buress Karmel, Luther Carr, J. Ed McClellan, Alpheus McGovern, Marcel P. Biscay, William W. Penaluna, Richard O. Bell.

Walter S. Hunter, F. Ed. Hoffman, G. T. Limpert, Francis N. Foley, T. H. Limpert, Joseph R. Fitzpatrick, Frank V. Kington, Percy W. Jackson, Landis Weaver, John A. Cost, Reuel R. Sutton, David D. Wexler.

George C. Halcrow, Dennis L. Wodman, Clyton Elliott, Charles Wiseman, James M. Wallace, William O. Ellis.

Among the many labor leaders endorsing Judge Rapsey are:

Harold T. Lopez, Dan Sweeney, Hermann "Dutch" Kleist, Pete Williams, John E. Crilley, Ed McLaughlin.

Paper Supports Brown Campaign

More than 50 years of Republican tradition were broken this week when the Stockton Record, leading San Joaquin valley newspaper, unqualifiedly supported the candidacy of District Attorney Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of San Francisco, a Democrat, for attorney general on both major party slates in the June 6 primary election.

The Record last supported a Demorat for state office in 1899 when it endorsed the candidacy of Governor Budd, a Stockton native.

The unqualified endorsement of Brown by the Record, of which Irving Martin Sr. is president, confirms a significant trend to Brown in Republican ranks. It also confirms polls which show that Brown will not only carry his own Democratic party nomination by a wide margin, but has an excellent chance to take the Republican nomination as well—and with it, election in the primary.

Brothers Guaraldi Close Central Creamery

The brothers Guaraldi, Tony and Gary, are still in Daly City these days, although they closed down the Central Creamery, 6331 Mission, last week.

When the lease expired, the brothers decided to look elsewhere for a place of business. As yet, they have not revealed whether or not they will re-open again in Daly City.

Both Tony and Gary are well known in this area, as they have operated the Creamery for the past five years.

wives, city officials, laboring men, club women, and almost every element in the county.

"My sole desire for job of recorder," Duffy said, "is to bring into that very important office my background of governmental and business training in order for San Mateo county's citizens to receive the highest type of efficiency."

Among those who came out for the candidacy of Duffy today were:

Daniel J. Creedon, mayor of San Mateo; Bradford M. Melvin, attorney and inheritance tax appraiser, San Mateo; James A. Connelly, real estate, Atherton; Oliver Cortesi, hotel and restaurateur,

Bob Duffy

South San Francisco; Elizabeth M. Maes, past president of the VFW auxiliary, San Mateo; Dorothy V. Gebhardt, housewife and club woman, South San Francisco;

Peter J. Markovich, insurance and civic leader, Daly City; Ella McNutt Daniel, real estate and insurance, Redwood City; Stanford Hannah, principal Jefferson high school, Daly City; Emil G. Tormey Group Calls For Change

The Daly City Tormey-for-School Superintendent committee composed of volunteer members of labor, business, civic leaders, youth services and especially parents and teachers are backing James (Jim) Tormey because they know he is experienced, qualified and trained to provide a business like administration of the county schools.

Since 1906 no voter in our county has had any choice in electing the county school superintendent. In 44 years there have only been two superintendents. No one ever had the courage to run against either of them. The present superintendent, and her assistant have been entrenched and have had control for a long time.

This sort of thing develops bureaucrats in government. It breeds contempt for public opinion and results in autocratic attides towards our teachers and local boards. Politics has no place in our schools. It is time for a change.

The local Tormey committee urges all voters to skip the first two names, and vote for James (Jim) Tormey and elect an able, experienced school administrator. We should not accept a hand picked candidate out of the old regime.

Nixon Completes Senate Campaign

Richard M. Nixon

With only four or five days to go to the June 6 primaries, Congressman Richard M. Nixon today had completed his Northern California campaign for the United States senate.

Nixon turns to Southern California and particularly the area near his home at Whittier for the closing days, while his Northern California campaign committee, headed by John W. Dinkelspiel, confidently predicted an outstanding victory at next Tuesday's election.

"Without wishing to seem overconfident, we have watched the reaction closely during Nixon's Northern California barnstorming tour," Dinkelspiel said. "We feel he will win the Republican nomination with an overwhelming vote and that his showing in the Democratic field will show that he is accepted not as a party politician but as an American who wants to avoid the road to state socialism."

Meanwhile, concluding his tour of the 38 northern counties with meetings in Alameda, Contra Costa and Humboldt Counties, Nixon urged a united aggressive effort by all California representatives "to develop to the maximum the great potential wealth represented by our rapidly expanding population and our vast untapped resources."

"We must bring this new population and our untouched reserves together to realize a state of progress and prosperity on a scale never before attempted," Nixon declared.

Nixon offered the following points as the major items in his platform of progress:

Maximum development of water, power and mining.

Immediate strengthening of our maritime and ship-building industries.

Promotion of federal tax incentives for new enterprise and small business.

A fair share of defense contracts for California industries.

Removal of discriminatory freight rates and other excise taxes.

A bigger place in the world trade sun.

"These things are not idle dreams," Nixon said. "They can become accomplishments. All we need is to present a united front in Washington, regardless of whether we are Democrats or Republicans. I pledge myself to the development of that kind of a program—and to fight against any further travel on the road to state socialism or bankruptcy government spending."

Patten Closes Campaign

A. P. (Phil) Patten closes a vigorous campaign this week as a candidate for county superintendent of schools. In his talks to dozen of groups all over the county and in the thousands of letters mailed to voters he has stressed the importance of leadership and business experience in the county school office.

Patten is against politics of any sort in school affairs. He believes that the sole business of the staff at the county school office is to devote themselves strictly to the welfare of the children.

He believes that school purchases should be made in the county whenever it is legally possible.

Patten thinks that there should be more emphasis on the fundamentals and also better discipline in many schools.

Patten makes his bid for the position of county superintendent of schools entirely on his record of 23 years of public school service. This has covered elementary, high school, junior college, college, adult evening school and teacher training and 15 years school administration.

Whitmore Makes Strong Bid For Sheriff's Job

Earl Whitmore

Earl B. Whitmore is a candidate for sheriff of San Mateo county by reason of the encouragement of his many friends and citizens of the county and his own desire to administer honest, efficient and fair law enforcement.

Whitmore is qualified, trained and experienced and the only candidate with any law enforcement experience opposing the incumbent sheriff. He has been with the Redwood City police department nine years and has made an excellent record there as a law enforcement officer.

Whitmore is further qualified for the sheriff's office by his training in FBI-sponsored schools for crime prevention and detection and he is well versed in modern methods and techniques of law enforcement.

At present Whitmore is on leave of absence from the Redwood City police department to study law.

A resident of Redwood City and San Mateo county for 26 years, Whitmore is 32 years old. He is married to the former Meredith Clentenburg whose family is prominent in San Mateo county. Earl and Meredith have three daughters.

Whitmore attended Redwood City schools and was graduated from Sequoia high school. He also attended Iowa State Teachers college.

He is a veteran, having served in the Army Air Force during World War II where he was assigned as an investigator in the provost marshall's office.

He is a member of a well known San Mateo county family. His father, A. S. Whitmore, retired recently as chief deputy district attorney to resume private law practice.

When Whitmore entered the race for sheriff he said, "I am sincere in my ambition and desire to bring modern methods and a business-like administration to the all-important office of Sheriff if elected by the people of San Mateo county. I pledge an administration built on a foundation of just, fair and equal enforcement of all the laws for the best interest of all our citizens. I realize and understand the necessity for an evenly balanced law enforcement program."

Kirste To Complete County Contacts

Winding up her campaign to retain the office of county recorder, Miss Ruth Kirste will devote the coming four days to furthering her contacts throughout the county.

In the past week Miss Kirste was the guest of Pro America at a tea on Tuesday, while Monday evening she was the speaker at the Mills Improvement association in Burlingame. Tuesday evening she attended a candidates' night held by the San Mateo Legion post.

Last week she also was a luncheon guest at a realtors' program in South San Francisco, and returns this week for a similar affair. Sunday she was a guest at the charmarita held in Half Moon Bay, where she has many friends.

"I intend to meet as many people as possible within the next 10 days," Miss Kirste said, adding, "this campaign has been a wonderful experience for me. Formerly all my campaigning was devoted to the cause of some one else. I shall always cherish the many fine contacts I have made, and no matter what the results may be, I shall always remember how very kind and nice to me everybody has been.

"Naturally, I'd like to win on June 6, but if I should have go to a November election I know I can count on all the fine friends I have made in this campaign. I can honestly say that even my opponents have been nice to me."

Teachers, Grocers Endorse Meyers

Assemblyman Charles W. Meyers, seeking re-election as the 24th district's representative, this week received the endorsement of the California Teachers association, 60,000 strong, in appreciation of the services he "rendered to the cause of public education" during the 1950 session of the legislature.

Notification of the endorsement came from Arthur F. Corey, executive secretary of the association. Corey added, in his letter to Meyers, "Please accept my thanks on behalf of the children and the teachers for the careful consideration you gave to all measures for support of the schools and for your assistance in meeting the problems facing education."

Meyers was also informed of his endrosement by the California grocers association and all its affiliated associations. The latter announcement came from W. D. Hadeler, secretary of the grocers association.

Shattuck Winds Up Campaign

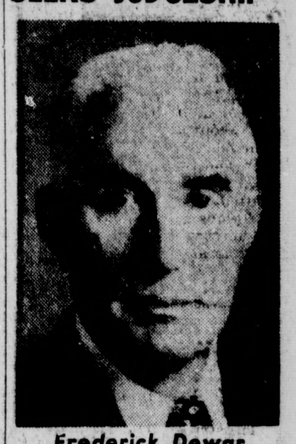
"The people of California are demanding a new attorney general," Edward S. Shattuck commented today as he was winding up his county by county campaign throughout the state of California in behalf of his candidacy for attorney general.

"The incumbent, dubbed "unfit for public office" by Governor Warren, seems destined to be swept into political exile by the roused voters of the state," Shattuck said.

Pointing out that the incumbent, while stating he was running on his record, has hidden behind a smoke screen and evaded answering seven basic 64 dollar questions concerning his agent's convictions and association among gamblers and hoodlums, Shattuck called on the people of California to join him in a crusade to restore and maintain the dignity and respect of the attorney general's office.

Shattuck, the only veteran running for attorney general, has pledged if elected attorney general to cooperate, rather than interfere, with the district attorneys, sheriffs, police officers, and other law enforcement agents in enforcing the laws of the State of California.

SEEKS JUDGESHIP



Frederick Dewar

I am seeking election to the office of judge of the superior court of San Mateo county, department number 3.

At the age of 13 I commenced work as an office boy in a lawyer's office; wrote shorthand at the age of 14 and took legal dictation from attorneys. At the age of 19 I became manager of an English law office. I completed my pre-legal education at the University of Saskatchewan, Canada, and thereafter became a law student with the honorable William M. Martin, K.C. M.P., premier of the Province of Saskatchewan. In World War One I enlisted in the Canadian expeditionary forces and upon discharge held the rank of sgt. major. After the war I came to the United States and completed my legal education at the San Francisco Law school and have been in active practice as an attorney for approximately 20 years.

I am a past post commander of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League (2 one year terms) and past state attorney for California for such Legion (2 one year terms). I am a member of the board of directors of the East Palo Alto sanitary district and a member of the Lions club. My son entered the regular United States Navy and at the outbreak of World War II he was at Pearl Harbor. At the close of the war he held the rank of chief gunner's mate and is still in the navy. My wife, Ellen, and I have lived in East Palo Alto in our own home at 2257 Clarke avenue for many years.

13 --- AND A VICTORY

Jeff Indians Come Up With PAL Crown; Down Vikings In Fifth For 7 To 6 Win

By MILTON TROMBORG

Yes, it's finally happened. After 13 years of heartbreaks, Jefferson high school walked off the diamond last Friday holding the PAL baseball crown.

Staging a great comeback in the last of the fifth, Coach Glenn South's lads downed a fighting Palo Alto 7 to 6 for the second game in the series and the league pennant.

Until the fifth, the Indians were trailing the Vikings by 5 to 1, and it looked as if the boys from down south were going to force Jeff into a third game.

But during the mighty fifth, the Indians cut loose with two three-run barrages to cop the ball game.

Morgan found it a little rough and was knocked off the mound in the first inning. Three runs, off 5 hits, 4 singles, and a home run did enough damage to the Indian's cause, so Henry Morgan went to right field, thus putting Jim Hatchel on the mound. Hatchel retired the sides, giving the Vikings a lead of 3-0.

The Indians came back in their first frame to score 1 run off 1 hit. Lunghi walked, as did Mosman. Morgan forced Lunghi out at third as Findlay laid a single to left field, scoring Mosman on the play.

Hatchel in the meantime found a little trouble in the 2nd frame, giving up 2 runs off 2 hits.

In the third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings, Hatchel pitched wonderful ball and not once was he in trouble.

After four full innings of play, the score still stood 5-1 with the Vikings out on top. It looked as if a third game was going to have to be played, but then Coach South's boys went to work.

Lunghi opened the 5th with a free pass to first as did Mosman.

Henry Morgan, who met tough luck earlier in the game on the mound got back the three runs that he gave up, by knocking a 350 foot home run, thus butting the Indians back in the ball game, the score being Jefferson 4, Palo Alto 5.

With the roar of the crowd, the Indians came back in the 6th frame to score 3 more runs off Palo Alto pitching.

Goodnol walked, and advanced to third on two wild pitches. Thinking of only to tie the ball game up, Coach South yanked Jim Hatchel out for a pinch hitter, who in turn grounded out.

Lunghi kept the Indian's hopes high by getting hit by a pitch ball and advancing to second with a stolen base. Then Harold Mosman, lined a single to left field, scoring the tieing and winning run at that time. Morgan and Matzek both took free passes to first to load the bags, as Roy Childress also took a free pass to first walking in the last run. The score stood 7-5 with the Indians out in front.

With Hatchel out for a pinch hitter, Ed Cereghino went into the game to do the chucking for the Indians. Palo Alto reached him for 2 hits and a run, but not enough to win the game.

After 1 run had been scored and a man on second base, a Palo Alto Viking laced a line drive deep into left center field which everyone thought was going for a home run, but Max Kliem made a brilliant catch to stop the tieing run from scoring. Cereghino climaxed the game by striking out the last batter for the third out.

Full details of the 1950 season will appear in next week's paper.

TRACK MEET SUNDAY

Annual Lions Club Track And Field Day Events To Be Held At Jeff High

The Daly City-Colma Lions club, with the assistance of the recreation department, is sponsoring the annual track and field day at the Jefferson high school track this Sunday, June 4, 1950.

Boys and girls from all of the local grade schools are welcome to participate. Preliminary meets are now in progress and the finalist will meet at the high school track this Sunday to determine the local champions and school championship.

The Lions have bought some beautiful medals for the first place winners and ribbons for the second, third and fourth place winners. OLPH now has the wonderful trophy that the Lions bought last year, but the will have to be at their best this year because the Crocker and Jefferson schools have their eyes on that big gold trophy.

The trophy is to go to the school having the most points at the end of the track meet, and the school may keep the trophy in its trophy case for one year. If OLPH wins enough points again this year to keep the trophy it will be theirs' for one more year.

The track and field meet will start promptly at 11 a.m. and should be over in two hours. It is hoped that as many parents as possible will come and watch their children participate. This year's Junior Olympics should prove very interesting and we hope that everyone capable will be on hand to participate.

Following is a list of events:

Order of Field Events

Football throw, softball throw, high jump, broad jump (running), board jump (standing), football throw, softball throw.

Jeff High Faculty To Dine Team

Members of the champion Jefferson baseball team are to be feted and dined by the Jefferson high school faculty this Monday evening.

The faculty has arranged a dinner for the 19 players (plus our sports writer, Milton Tromborg). While the principal purpose of the feed is to fill the stomachs of the Indians, it is expected that they also will be lauded with a few well chosen words.

Then, during the second week in June, the boys will be taken to a Seals game by the faculty.

All of which leads to the conclusion that the lads might also get next to the faculty when it comes to grades.

Members Still Needed for DC Band

Music for the July 4 fireworks at Marchbanks park this year is to be furnished by the Daly City band, George Brenner, bandmaster, said today.

However, if the band is to make more noise than the gunpowder, it is necessary that a few more men join up. The band is still making a search for more players who are residents of Daly City, Colma and the other new additions.

Anyone having had previous experience playing in a military band is urgently requested to report at fire station no. 5 every Tuesday night from 8 to 10 p.m.

Several resident members have been secured, but 10 to 15 more must be added to the membership to insure the success of the organization, Brenner said.

Hunters' Accidents Drop Off Here

California hunters were more careful of their targets—and resultantly of each other—during the 1949-50 hunting seasons, the division of fish and game reveals in announcing the annual accident figures.

Accidental deaths in the field from all causes totaled 24, compared to the all-time high of 38 chalked up in 1948.

Deaths due to heart attacks, drownings, and mishaps other than gun founds claimed 13 lives in 1949 and 1950 seasons. Ten were killed from similar causes in 1948.

According to reports from California newspapers and fish and game wardens, 69 hunters were injured by accidents related to hunting in the season just past, compared to the record high of 89 in 1948.

Assistant Chief John Chattin of the bureau of game conservation credits the lowered casulty list to an educational campaign carried on by the state agency, sportsmen's groups, and the Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers' institute.

RALPH'S CLEANERS IN SSF NIGHT LEAGUE --- FIRST GAME TONIGHT

Representing Daly City in the new South San Francisco Night league softball league will be the boys from Ralph's Cleaners.

The first game of the 10 game series gets underway this Monday night at the South City ball park, on Orange avenue.

At 7 o'clock Monday night Ralph's will take on the strong SSF Windbreakers. This, the first game, is expected to be one of the best of the season.

On the mound for the Windbreakers will be none other than Bob Spillers, candidate for sheriff. Pitching for Ralph's will be Whitey Mecham.

The public is invited to attend these games, and especially baseball fans from Daly City.

Entered in the SSF Night league are two teams from South City, three from San Francisco, and the single team from Daly City.

Meanwhile, last Sunday Ralph's suffered a hard defeat at the hands of the West Bay Lumber nine in Redwood City. The game went into the ninth inning (seven in softball) before the Lumber "jacks" broke up the fight with one man crossing home plate. Final score, 1 to 0 in favor of the Lumber team.

CHAMPION

Gerry Duncan

One Saturday afternoon two years ago, Gerry Duncan, 13-year-old daughter of Mrs. Jane Duncan of Lee's Pharmacy, 6389 Mission, decided to go roller skating.

It was her first time on skates, but Gerry took to the sport. In fact, she became so interested in the possibilities of skating that she gave more and more time to learning the intricate sport.

Now, just two years later, Gerry is an accomplished skater and holds the championship for figure and free style roller skating in California and the Pacific South West. She won first in both these events at a recent meet at San Diego.

Gerry is now practicing for the North American championship finals to be held in Denver July 11 to July 15. At 13, she is one of the youngest skaters ever to hold the title for California, and she hopes to go on to the North American championship.

However, in order that Gerry, and 12 other local skaters may make the trip to Denver, it is necessary to raise money for their trip.

"Skateland," the organization Gerry represents, is holding a party June 25 to raise funds for the contestants," Mrs. Duncan explained.

Anyone interested in helping is asked to contact Mrs. Duncan at Lee's Pharmacy.

Sarto's And Sarto A.C. Play Openers Sunday

Joe Sarto, who in no little way helped to "wean" Jeff's championship baseball team, announced today that two of his teams will be playing ball next week.

Of special interest to Jeff fans will be the activities of Sarto's. The lads on this team are made up for the most part of Jefferson high players. Among the boys fielding and pitching on Sarto's are Harold Mosman, Henry Morgan, Faustino, Finley, Micoletti and Tito Sarto.

These players will be entered in two leagues this summer. One is the San Francisco Park League and the other is the Funston night league.

The first Park League game of the season is to be played Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Big Rec playfield. At that time Sarto's will meet Leslie Salt.

Meanwhile, the Colma Boys Club have switched their name to the Sarto A. C. They play their first game in Palo Alto this Sunday at the Veterans hospital field.

Time of the game is set at 1:30 p.m., and the opposing team is the strong AMVETS, all of whose members come from San Mateo and Burlingame.

Navy Has Schools For Graduates

The navy assures qualified high school graduates of a course in one of its many vocational schools upon completion of their basic recruit training.

Each graduate who qualifies may have an opportunity to serve in the surface, air or submarine branch. In addition to basic submarine and airman schools there are over 30 other schools available.

You will be interested, also, to learn that more than 40 per cent of the officers serving in the navy today are former enlisted men. This means that there are real opportunities for advancement through the enlisted channels.

The navy affords excellent opportunities in training, education, world travel, adventure, good pay, retirement benefits and security, added to the free food, clothing, medical and dental care. To help you plan your future you are invited to examine the United States Navy Occupational Handbook in your school library. In the meantime you are encouraged to stay in school, graduate and go on to college if you can—and—join the United States Naval Reserve.

Complete information about the the regular navy and the naval reserve can be obtained by telephoning or visiting the U. S. Navy Recruiting station at the post office bldg., San Mateo, phone DI 4-2781.

Late "Customer" Gets $5 From Jack

Out $5 today is Jack's Place, 6456 Mission, victim of a burglary Sunday night.

Jack Clements, manager, said he missed the money from a cigar box next to the cash register when he opened for business Monday morning. He admits he might have locked someone in the establishment when he closed Sunday night, police said.

Police believe this to be the case, as none of the liquor was touched or was any effort made to find "some $200" kept in the place of business.

However, officers are not overlooking the possibility that the burglar may have entered through a broken window in a basement door.

There May Be Oil In S. M. County

There's oil in those San Mateo county hills.

At least, that is the conclusion of the Texas Oil Co. which plans to start sinking wells south of Memorial park within a month.

The well will be an exploratory affair to determine if there is enough oil to start full time operations.

The board of supervisors granted a use permit for the oil company on the Blomquist property, about one-half mile from Memorial park.

Leo Ferko First Incumb. Opponent

Next Tuesday will be the first time in 20 years that the office of San Mateo county assessor offers opposition to the incumbent," stated Dino Agresti of Daly City, a member of the Leo Ferko-for-Assessor committee.

Agresti went on to point out that the late Martin Flynn had no opposition and neither did his predecessor. The incumbent was not voted into office by the people. He was named to fill a vacancy.

The Ferko-for-Assessor committee points out the assessor sets the tax value of your property. From his tax value the county tax rate is set. Changing values have brought about a need for a change in the method used to compute tax values according to Agresti.

Ferko's supporters also direct attention to the fact that no change has been made in assessing technique used in San Mateo county during the past 20-years.

The Ferko-for-Assessor Committee points to the assessor candidate's outstanding background as qualification for his election:

1. As Mayor of South San Francisco he established a record as one of the county's ablest administrative officers.

2. Leo Ferko is the only veteran seeking election as assessor.

3. He recently completed a year's special study with the Coro Foundation where he specialized in Bay Area assessment problems.

4. As a Stanford graduate he has an excellent academic background coupled with a thorough knowledge of county affairs gained from living in San Mateo county the past 34 years.

Agresti went on to say, "Leo Ferko is young, energetic, able, fair and friendly. He wants to prevent unnecessary increases in taxes. That's why I'm for Leo Ferko."

The Ferko for Assessor campaign slogan is: "Proper Assessment Means Lower Taxes."

Ganino Platform For Supervisor

Anthony Ganino, candidate for supervisor of the second district, today made the following statement:

I was born in San Mateo, am married, and have three children. Being interested in good government, I became a candidate for supervisor, and realize that good government stems from energetic farsighted effort expended unselfishly in the interest of my fellow citizens.

I aspire to represent all the taxpayers of the county, fairly and equitably. I will be truthful and industrious and will devote my full time to the office and will constantly strive for the application of the best methods to insure efficiency, economy and full cooperation with the board of supervisors.

I realize that unless we encourage more industries, we will, in time, have unemployment and unrest and therefore will encourage desirable industries to our county. Along with this, I am also in favor of better recreational facilities, which will promote good health and a happy outlook on life among our youth.

I am interested in the welfare of our war veterans, and will lend my aid to all of them who require assistance from the federal, state, and county agencies. And our beach land on the coast, the projected breakwater, will receive my wholehearted support. I am well acquainted with the needs of the entire county. I gained this knowledge through membership in the Fraternal Order of Eagles, a very active organization throughout the county, and my membership and work with the East San Mateo Improvement club.

Please consider my candidacy and rest assured that if elected, I will represent your interest in good faith.

Attorneys Support Judge Draper

An overwhelming majority of the attorneys practicing in South San Francisco and Daly City has urged the voters to return Judge Murray Draper as judge of the superior court at the election June 6.

Local attorneys endorsing Judge Draper are: John J. Fahey Jr., Richard P. Lyons, Antonio J. Gaudio, Frank B. Blum, Thomas L. Bocci Jr., and Thomas B. Gallen.

San Bruno and Millbrae attorneys joining in the endorsement are Rudolph A. Rapsey, Saul N. Ross, Harold Elkins, Paul De Mare, and Louis E. Wexler.

These attorneys say: "We heartily endorse Judge Murray Draper for election as Superior Judge, and we urge the voters of this county to return him to office."

LEGION COMMANDER CHALLENGES BOCCI'S CLAIM OF VET SUPPORT

(Reprint from Burlingame Advance)

Joseph Madden, district service officer for the American Legion, today challenged the right of a political aspirant for making claim to support of veterans.

Madden took issue with candidate Thomas Bocci, Jr., who is opposing Rudolph A. Rapsey, incumbent, for justice of the peace of the first township.

"A committee of ex-service men," said Madden, "composed of members of the American Legion, Disabled American War Veterans, the Amvets, Spanish American War Veterans and their auxiliaries have made careful screening of all candidates and find that Bocci has absolutely no service record in connection with the last world war."

"How can this man come before any group of ex-service men and demand consideration?"

"In comparison, Judge Rudolph Rapsey is a World War I veteran. In addition, he has served on all branches of civilian and governmental help in World War II. Mr. Bocci pits no judicial experience, practically no service of length as a lawyer, against Judge Rapsey's 18 years of conscientious, humane, learned service as a judge. Judge Rapsey warrants the support of veterans and of all persons who believe in rewarding a public servant who performs his official duties honestly and capably."

DeSalvatore In "Home Stretch"

Wih no lessening of the strong drive he has made through his campaign for county controller, Charles DeSalvatore today was prepared for what he termed the "home stretch" of the controller's race. With just about ten days left to go, DeSalvatore said he would step up his campaigning in an effort to win the Controller's office June 6.

"This," he said "has been a clean and fair campaign. There are some issues with which I believe the people are familiar, and in my last announcement I shall refrain from further comment, because I know the taxpayer is fully aware of the situation in Redwood City.

DeSalvatore has waged one of the most intensive campaigns ever known to San Mateo county in the race for any office. He has attended virtually every political meeting, and his personal contacts have been unequaled in the history of county campaigning. Friends have said "if there is anything in work, Charles is a sure winner."

In winding up his campaign DeSalvatore said this is the first political campaign he ever has been in. He added he never realized just how much work was involved, but explained it was well worth it because of the many fine friends he has made. "It's amazing," he declared, "how well people are informed about their county government, and it's surprising to find out how much they really know about what goes on in county government.

POLICE CHIEFS PRAISE AID GIVEN THEM BY SHERIFF McGRATH IN LAW ENFORCEMENT MATTERS

SURVEY SHOWS
SHERIFF
JAMES J. McGRATH
HAS PLACED OFFICE
AT DISPOSAL OF CITIES
FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Sheriff Jim McGrath's political opponents have tried to make you think that he has not cooperated with San Mateo County's municipal police departments.

To show the falseness of such propaganda, a poll was taken of the Peninsula Police Chiefs, and this question was asked them: "HAS SHERIFF McGRATH BEEN COOPERATIVE WITH YOU IN LAW ENFORCEMENT WHEN YOU CALLED UPON HIM?"

Here is the signed answer of Police Chiefs in San Mateo county's incorporated cities:

"In the administration of our duties as Police Chiefs in the incorporated cities of San Mateo County, we have ALWAYS found Sheriff James J. McGrath, his deputies, and his office, most cooperative in all matters pertaining to Law Enforcement whenever we sought his or their aid."

THIS STATEMENT WAS SIGNED BY:

Police Chief Leror A. Hubbard of Atherton
Police Chief James A. Lyall of Belmont
Police Chief W. W. Sunderland of Daly City
Police Chief Walter J. Wisnom of Hillsborough
Police Chief R. C. Theuer of Burlingame
Police Chief Walter Swope, Jr., Millbrae
Police Chief George Potter, Menlo Park
Police Chief Martin McDonnell, San Mateo

Shasta Dam Floodgates Open For Celebration

The floodgates of mighty Shasta Dam will be lifted for the first time during the Shasta Centennial celebration here, allowing a full flow of water down the tremendous spillway.

This unprecedented demonstration will take place twice—during the formal dedication of the dam by the Federal government the afternoon of June 17, and the night before during a fireworks and lighting display arranged by the California Centennials Commission.

Announcement of this feature of the eight-day (June 11-18) celebration program was made by George Heinz, executive secretary to the California Centennials Commission, who is here with his staff working on final arrangements in coperation with the Shasta County Centennial Committee.

The Bureau of Reclamation, always anxious to conserve water behind the dams under its control, will find it necessary to test certain insrtuments during the dedication ceremonies. As a result, these two particular displays of Shasta's might and beauty will be made possible, Heinz said. However, the tests will be limited to aproximately five minutes on each occasion.

S. M. County Leads In Home Building

San Mateo county leads the bay area in construction of new homes for the first quarter of 1950, the bay area council announced this week.

More than 3,137 building permits for new homes were issued during the first three months of this year. This is 2,135 more permits than were issued by the nine other bay area counties.

Almost one-quarter of the new homes are being built outside city districts.

JACK HARRIS EXPOSES SHERIFF CANDIDATES

Jacob (Jack) Harris, leading candidate for sheriff, stated today that "the other three candidates have failed to convince the voters of their truth and sincerity or their ability to handle the important office of sheriff!"

Not one other candidate has ever had any administrative position! Not one other candidate will explain where their thousands of dollars are coming from. I have repeatedly challenged them on this matter and they have said that it's no one's business and given vague answers! Can anyone believe that these candidates would spend many many thousands for a crusade. Don't believe it! They are spending so many thousands of doilars that voters all over the county are asking "where and who puts up the cash?"

Harris is the only candidate with federal investigative past status as Investigator for Treasury Dept., Immigration and Customs Services. The U. S. Border Patrol and the Forestry Service. He is 42 years old, a successful administrative business man for many years and a registered voter in this county for 20 years. He is the only candidate with a teen-age child and two more attending school. He is very well known in many parts of the county for club and civic work. An efficient and experienced administrator with years of business knowledge, and held in high respect by everyone who knows him.

He favors: modernizing the county jail and would consider a jail farm if the people want one! Establish sheriff sub-stations! Combat ALL Subversive activities! Maintain the sheriff's office as an aid to families faced with difficult juvenile or adult problems. He will use an iron hand on disorderly hoodlums or violent criminals! "We've got to protect our law abiding citizens first," he has stated. "Then we'll correct the causes and effects after!" Gambling laws will be enforced. He will help anyone who really needs aid from his office. NO other candidate is as old or experienced as he is.

"The incumbent will get the most votes," says Mr. Harris, but he MUST receive 51%, yes 51% of ALL votes cast to retain office and this he cannot do. Therefore, the man with the second most votes will run against him alone in November. There is only the incumbent or Jack Harris to consider. The other candidates will only split votes and get nowhere. If the good people want a new sheriff, then they should vote for Jack Harris, and have no fear if he wins, for good clean law administration.

Johny Is Coming Home --- Thanks To Jack Anderson

Johny is coming home. The most talked-about boy in Denmark is flying to LaGuardia field, New York, with a private Danish-speaking nurse and from there he will enplane on a non-stop flight to San Francisco airport where he will be welcomed by a San Mateo couple who, by law, may now claim him as their "native born" son.

There at the plane, probably next Tuesday afternoon, will be Congressman J. Z. Anderson, representative from San Mateo and other bay area counties who is fully credited with putting through legislation permitting Johny to come home.

Johny is 3½ and until a few days ago he was an orphan. Both his parents were killed when he was but five days old, so he was put in an orphanage at Jyderup, Denmark.

One day last July a grief-stricken couple from San Mateo saw Johny, a blond, smiling boy who baby-talked in Danish to them. There was a spark of understanding between them, so the couple decided to adopt the boy. That was a relatively simple matter to what they later were confronted with. The immigration people said the boy could only leave Denmark on the quota and that would mean a wait of five or six years.

The anxious couple, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Leth-Nissen of San Mateo were stunned by the death of their own five-year old son a few days previously. They had walked along one of the streets in Copenhagen when suddenly a mad dog attacked their boy. He was rushed to a hospital for the Pasteur treatment but in administering it, a hypodermic needle broke necessitating an operation for its removal. The anesthetic caused him to vomit and choke to death.

The Nissens met Vivien Marshall, a school teacher from San Mateo who told them that Congressman Jack Anderson might find a way for them to bring home a boy to replace the one they had lost. The Danish press was full of the tragic news, then the big heart of Uncle Sam started to swell and throb.

Congressman Jack Anderson cabled the Nissens he would go all out for their cause. He introduced a bill in the house which "for the purpose of immigration and naturalization laws, Johny Nielsen, a native and citizen of Denmark, be henceforth considered the natural-born son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Leth-Nissen who are United States citizens."

The bill passed both the house and the senate, then on May 1 it was signed by President Truman and became law. Congressman Anderson followed the bill step-by-step. On May 11 a cablegram from Denmark informed the Nissens at their San Mateo home that a special Danish-speaking nurse would accompany the boy to New York. Papers had to be cleared with the State department. These papers were scheduled to be delivered in Denmark on Thursday, May 25 and within 24 hours, according to Nissen the boy should be on his way.

County Mayors Back Dolwig

San Mateo county leaders, Democrats and Republicans, this week are redoubling their efforts to assure reelection of Assemblyman Richard J. "Dick" Dolwig at the June primary election next Tuesday, June 6.

Typical of the support being accorded the county's popular legislator are the statements made in behalf of Dolwig's candidacy by leaders of both political parties.

Claude Hirschey, prominent Democrat and former mayor of San Mateo, states, "Your record as an assemblyman representing San Mateo county deserves the continued support of all Democrats."

Dolwig has been twice elected with large majorities.

John D. Bromfield, Burlingame civic leader and prominent Democrat, stated, "as an advocate of sound legislation affecting San Mateo county you have given this district excellent representation."

Assemblyman Dolwig's support for re-election is reaching into every sector of San Mateo county.

The mayors have added the slogan "Re-elect Assemblyman 'Dick' Dolwig" to the Dolwig campaign slogan of "He Gets Things Done!"

Assemblyman Dolwig is the only veteran seeking election to the important office of the San Mateo county assemblyman.

WANT 'YES' VOTE PROPOSITION 'A'

Proposition 'A' Will Return The Vote To North County, Check Spending

Proponents of Proposition "A" today called on all residents of northern San Mateo county to vote "Yes" on the measure at the June 6 primary.

Only through Proposition "A" will the vote be returned to the districts, thus giving the north county a voice in county government.

Presently, supervisors are elected by the county at large. This means the large population centers in the south have the dominant voice in all county matters. Consequently, this leaves Daly City, and other north county communities with no representation on the board of supervisors.

"We have all seen the result of government without representation," a backer of Proposition "A" stated. "The north county is left out in the cold on everything but paying taxes to support the southern section."

Strong support has been given the Proposition by the people throughout San Mateo county. It is significant that only the politicians and interested business concerns in the southern section of the county have fought the measure.

Of the 12,000 persons who signed the petition to put the Proposition before the voters June 12, not one represented a vested interest or political body. The 12,000 signatures are those of the average business man, laborer and homemaker in San Mateo county.

"There is no other issue before the voters this election that has caused so much concern on behalf of those who claim to have the taxpayers interest at heart, but who submit a record $12,000,000 budget for the county for 1950-51," a Proposition backer noted.

Why this interest? The answer can be found in still another provision of Proposition "A." Presently, the board of supervisors can not be checked in their spending of the taxpayers money. Consequently, the budget has gone from $3,026,826 in 1944-45 to the record $12,000,000 for the coming fiscal year.

The Proposition would require that all offices and departments submit their budget estimates to the County Executive for revision and approval. The board may decrease or reject any item contained in the proposed budget as approved by the County Executive, but shall not increase any amount without the approval of the Executive.

Also, the Proposition would check spending by putting a ceiling on salaries for county officials.

This is nothing more than the system of checks and balances which has been the 'cornerstone" of democracy for the past 200 years.

Still, it is this same "cornerstone" that the board of supervisors managed to blast in 1948 when the post of County Executive was abolished in favor of a manager to be appointed by the supervisors.

In conclusion, the passage of Prroposition "A" June 6 means:

1. Restoring the vote to districts, thus giving the north county a voice in county government.
2. A check on wild county spending, by the restoration of the system of checks and balances.
3. The return of the County Executive officer as a representative of the people and a "pilot" for county affairs.

91st Infantry Band Wants Members

The Ninety-First Infantry Division band, which eventually will have 68 pieces, still has openings for about 20 members, it was reported by Brig. Gen. C. Lyn Fox, division commander.

Those who join right away will become eligible to attend the two week summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash., if they so desire, General Fox pointed out.

The recently organized band has been set up with the endorsement of the AFL Musicians union, local 6, and membership is open to both union and non-union musicians.

Band members receive pay for attending two night meetings each month.

In addition to receiving pay for the two hour nightly meetings, reservists accumulate valuable points toward retirement benefits.

Pay for attending summer camp includes also, for enlisted men, travel pay and subsistence allowances. Clothing and equipment is furnished.

PROPER ENGINE COMPRESSION

One of the main factors in fuel consumption is maintenance of the proper engine compression, declares the National Automobile club. A reduction in standard compression pressure indicates worn cylinder walls, defective piston rings, sticky valves or improper seating.

If You Are A Working Man

and have served your employer honestly, faithfully and to the best of your ability—you expect and feel you are entitled to fairness on the boss' part when the time comes that he is forced to make a decision as to whether you will be kept on the job or not. You have every right to feel that your experience, honesty, length of service, stability, integrity and faithfulness should be given consideration, in short, you want him to be fair and square in handling your individual case. You want your boss to keep you on the job because you know and feel that it is the fair and honest thing to do.

If the tables were turned and you were the Boss would you follow the policy set in the above paragraph — we think you would. Your experience as an employee would have taught you the fairness and intelligence of such a decision.

Mr. Working Man, You Are The Boss

when it comes to electing public officials, and there is a man asking you, the boss, to keep him on the job because of his experience, honesty, integrity — because he now holds that job and because if we believe in all these things such as fairness and just plain righteousness he should be retained as our employee. Let's be fair! Retain a valued and faithful employee.

THESE ARE THE FACTS - - - WHICH OF THESE WOULD YOU CHOOSE?

- Your vote for Justice of the Peace of the First Township on June 6th can spell the difference between continued safety and protection of your vested rights or the abandonement and misuse of the very court processes which make these benefits possible.
- Special interests, through devious methods, are urging you to place an inexperienced man in an all important judicial position, a judgeship now administered in an energetic, impartial, and thoroughly humane manner by Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey whose honesty, energy, integrity, ability, and humane handling of human frailties have won him the respect of judges, lawyers, and right thinking citizens alike.
- Make your own comparison from the facts set forth in this message to you. Then, you will know whose best interests you will serve with your vote.

A SENATOR AND THREE JUDGES SAY:

STATE SENATOR HARRY L. PARKMAN:
"As a state legislator I am in close contact with the judiciary of California. I therefore deem it a duty to give my unqualified endorsement to Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey and urge his retention as Justice of the Peace of the First Township. His record should attract the support of all those citizens who demand that their courts function on the highest level of honest intent and humane understanding."

SUPERIOR JUDGE AYLETT R. COTTON:
"The township justice court is a vital and important unit of our judicial system. Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey has conducted this court in a competent manner based on the true American system of humane justice and kindly consideration. It will be to the credit of the first township in this County to retain him as judge."

JUDGE HUGH F. MULLIN
"Seldom do I enter political issues outside of my district, but I feel I would be derelict as a jurist, as a lawyer, and as a citizen if I did not point out at this time that the fine ends of service and citizenship would be best served through the retention of Judge Rudolph Rapsey as judge of First Township Justice Court."

JUDGE EDWARD J. RYAN
"Judge Rudolph A. Rapsey has brought the Justice Court of First Township to a high plane of judicial service. Justice in the highest meaning of the word is assured by his continued presence on the bench. His re-election will bespeak common sense voting by the good people of the Township."

NOW, COMPARE HIS RECORD WITH THAT OF HIS OPPONENT

JUDGE RAPSEY'S RECORD

1. Twenty-seven years' practice as an Attorney at Law in First Township, San Mateo County.
2. More than 18 years' service as a Judge (16 years as City Judge of San Bruno and more than 2 years as Justice of the Peace).
3. Has presided as Judge in more than 7000 cases.
4. Endorsed by 54 to 3 Vote of San Mateo County Bar Association.
5. World War I Veteran, Leader in all patriotic efforts, World War II.

HIS OPPENENT'S RECORD

1. Has had only about 3 years practice of law.
2. Has had absolutely no judicial experience.
3. Asked the County Bar Association to endorse him but was rejected by a 54 to 3 vote.
4. He is not a veteran. Can make no claim to a war service record of any kind.
5. Is not endorsed by any member of the judiciary.

Oh for a Blonde and a Convertible

By Ridgely Cummings

Recently someone asked me what was my most cherished ambition.

Well, I said, I'm not sure, but I can tell you what it used to be.

When I was a boy of eleven I was shipped off to a military academy out in the rolling hills of Maryland, some fifteen miles from Pimlico where the horses run. Pimlico is a suburb of Baltimore or at least it used to be. Maybe it is in the city limits now for everything has grown lately.

This military academy was a pretty good school as non-coeducational schools go. We wore light blue uniforms with dark blue stripes down the pants legs and up the front of our high-necked jackets. On Sundays and formal occasions we wore white starched collars inside the high necks. Week-days we dispensed with the white but were supposed to keep the collars closed.

A rebel even then, I always left the collar unhooked and sometimes neglected to button the top four or five buttons of the jacket, so that my coat flopped open in what I thought was a becoming roll something like an ordinary civilian coat. This enraged my teachers and superior officers in the cadet corps—students like myself but a little older—and they kept putting me on the demerit list.

DAILY INSPECTION

We marched to meals and had to pass inspection at the dining room door. You could get demerits for unmilitary appearance, which included unshined shoes, for disorderly conduct in classes and for being late to calisthenics in the morning. I used to behave myselve in class all right but my shoes gave me a lot of trouble because they seemed irresistably attracted to mudpuddles; the high collars irritated me and I was usually one of the stragglers who took five minutes extra in bed and dashed out to calisthenics formation half dressed at 6:31½ instead of 6:30 a.m.

Consequently I was a yardbird, a perennial resident perched high on the demerit list.

What we did with demerits was "work them off." An hour's work for each demerit, usually raking leaves or cleaning out the stables or feeding the horses, which I didn't mind at all for I fancied myself as a rider and became a member of the polo squad at an early age.

However, it was a nuisance, policing up the grounds, walking around with an old burlap bag over my shoulder and a stick with a nail in the end in my hands, spearing stray bits of rubbish while the good boys were playing footbal, baseball or trying the hurdles and the pole vault, depending upon the season.

GRADED BY WEIGHT

Football was the big sport at that school. There were a number of teams, starting with the varsity and scrubs, for which any boy weighing 140 pounds or more could try, and then working down from the 125 lb. team through the 115 lb., 105 lb. to the 90 lb.

I had skipped a couple of grades in grammar school and therefore was younger and lighter than most of my classmates. One of the high points in my military career came when I made the 105 lb. team weighing about 95 pounds soaking wet.

But I wander among pleasant memories. To get back to this consuming ambition. One day another demerit boy and I were assigned to spear paper around the gym. It was a bright, nippy fall afternoon and we could hear shouts coming from the gridiron. Sounded like the varsity was scrimmaging.

By silient but mutual consent my companion and I began spearing trash in that direction. Soon we had hidden our burlap bags and spears under the stands so no officious teacher would chase us back to work and were standing on the fifty-yard line, yelling encouragement to our favorites on the second team.

The youngsters, and especially the demerit boys, always rooted for the scrubs. We figured the varsity heroes got enough applause on game days and futhermore, being usually in hot water ourselves, we felt a natural sympathy for the underdog.

VISION ARRIVES

In the middle of the scrimmage a yellow convertible pulled in through the gate and parked close to the sideline. The top was down and a man and a woman were in the front seat. The coach took a look at the car, waved to the man in it, then gave his whistle to an assistant and walked over to shake hands and be introduced to the girl, who had blonde hair blowing in the breeze.

I was standing close by and took it all in. The man jumped out of the car and shook hands with the coach. He was dressed in a loud sport coat, slacks and doggy shoes. I thought then he was pretty old, but probably he was only about thirty, tanned and healthy looking.

The trio stood there laughing and talking and word went up and down the sidelines that the man with the convertible was a graduate who had played on the team a decade or so ago and had since made a fortune in the stock market. This was before the '29 crash.

I turned to my bedraggled companion—we were wearing crummy khaki fatigues—stuck out my youthful jaw in the Douglas Fairbanks attitude of grim determination and announced that some day I too was going to do the same thing—yellow convertible, blonde, white-walled tires, sport coat and all.

I never have—not yet. So when a friend asked me the other day about my aim in life that picture flashed before me. I still think it would be fun. But Maryland is a long way away, convertibles are expensive, girls don't wear their hair long enough to blow in a breeze and all the ones I pursue are brunettes or at the best have brown hair. Blondeness is recessive, the eugenics experts tell us. It must be that the character of the population is changing. Or maybe it's just my taste.

S. M. County Nose Counting Okey

Regardless of what some say, the census takers did a good job of counting noses in San Mateo county.

Census Supervisor Paul Bean today made that statement following a charge by the San Mateo chamber of commerce that the census taking was "sketchy" throughout the county.

Bean asserted that it was true many persons were not personally interviewed, but this procedure was not necessary.

"Our enumerators have other means of gathering information when they are unable to contact a person," Bean said.

With the preliminary census report to be issued about June 7, Bean said the nose counting was almost completed in the county.

Official Praises E. R. McDonald

"Edward R. McDonald deserves the support of every voter at the polls on June 6," Albert H. Randall, chairman of the San Mateo County Civil Service Commission said today.

"We are fortunate to have a man of his caliber runing for re-election to the county board of supervisors. McDonald never jumps to conclusions. He weighs fairly all sides of a question and makes his decision in the best interests of the majority.

"In my years as a representative of organized labor, I witnessed his fair dealings with all groups and, as a result, McDonald has the full confidence of organized labor.

"His outstanding quality is his absolute integrity in all his dealings. I consider him a distinguished public servant."

Shanley Campaigns For Recorder Job

James F. Shanley has been making an extensive campaign throughout the county for the office of county recorder.

Making many appearances before civic and club groups, Mr. Shanley has been urging voters to support him on the basis of his record as an administrator with the U. S. Internal Revenue Service in San Mateo county for the past 16 years.

He is a registered public accountant in California and a member of the San Mateo Elks, lodge 1112. He has the endorsement of the United AFL Political Education Committee and the Penninsula Automotive Machinists, Lodge 1414 IAM.

The office of the county recorder was made vacant by the death of T. Clark Rice last year.

Poss Confident Of Re-election

Supervisor Martin A. Poss, who seeks re-election on June 6, expressed confidence that the citizens of San Mateo county in recognition of his long and distinguished record of service to the county, would favor him with their support at the polls.

Poss said that San Mateo county is a multi-million dollar business and requires administrators who have had sound business training. He said that his 30 years as businessman in San Mateo has proven to be a valuable aid to him when making decisions concerning county finances.

His consideration for county taxpayers has been proven time and again when he has made recommendations for economies which have saved local taxpayers thousands of dollars. His recommendations last year during the county budget sessions were directly responsible for eliminating over $50,000 from this year's county fiscal expenses.

For his efforts toward tax savings he was commended highly by taxpayers organizations.

Joroslow Only Demo Assemblyman

That Jerry Joroslow is the only Democrat campaigning for state assemblyman from San Mateo county and the only individual having the official endorsement of the Democratic county and state central committees was reaffirmed today by Marion H. Kent, campaign chairman for the Joroslow-for-assemblyman committee.

"We are making this statement," said Kent, "because we have received a number of inquiries from persons who read an advertisement placed in San Mateo county newspapers last week calling for the re-election of the incumbent assemblyman, who is a registered Republican.

"The advertisement did not in any way indicate that the incumbent is a Republican and contained the following statement by a San Mateo county resident which led some people to believe the incumbent is a Democrat:—'Your record as an assemblyman representing San Mateo county deserves the continued support of all Democrats.'"

Sheridan PTA To Meet June 6

The last regular meeting of Sheridan PTA this school term will be held June 6, at 1 p.m. in room 17 at Sheridan schol. Children will be cared for during the meeting and refreshments are to be served following the adjournment of the meeting.

The June theme is "Freedom To Grow Through Physical Culture." Miss Alice Higgins, from the board of education physical education department, will be the speaker. An added feature of the program will be a movie entitled "Our Posture."

A report on the recent convention of the California parents and teachers held in Santa Cruz will be given by Mrs. George Kotkas, our New Mission section counselor.

Last year's history of Sheridan PTA will be read by Mrs. Louis Pamini.

(Paid Political Adv.)

An inherently good man becomes much more valuable to a plant or an office by virtue of the knowledge he has acquired on the job. Consider Judge Rapsey from the same standpoint and give him your vote next Tuesday, June 6.

LET'S BE FAIR

We who work for others have every right to expect them to be fair to us and that if we are to be judged, it will be done on the basis of how well we have "filled the bill."

We owe the same obligations to our employees, our public officials, and should use the same common sense and fairness in judging them especially when they have already served us and we have that record for our guidance in determining whether or not we should return them to office.

In our present election campaign we have a most noteworthy and exceptional case. Judge Rapsey is our present Justice of the Peace and with the intense effort and large sums of money that are being spent to replace him WE NEVER HEAR ONE WORD OF CRITICISM of him or of the manner in which he has conducted the office.

We have additional proof of the kind of service he has rendered and how highly he is regarded in the fact that the Bar Association of our county endorsed him by the virtually unanimous vote of 54-3.

What could be more convincing proof in our modern election campaigns that he is filling the bill and should be returned to office than this entire lack of criticism and expression of approval by those with whom he has been closely associated and are familiar with his record as a public official for many years?

Let's give him the same fair consideration and treatment we would expect if we were doing a good job. Let's reward him for his good services by returning him to office by an overwhelming majority and at the same time show that we believe not only in fairness to Judge Rapsey but to each and every person of the First Township who is desirous of having a fine trustworthy man as our Judge.

Show Your Appreciation To JUDGE RAPSEY

VOTE FOR HIM NEXT TUESDAY, JUNE 6

WATCH THAT WHEELBASE

Motorists are reminded by the National Automobile club that a car's wheelbase is more than doubled when a trailer is attached. This makes a great deal of difference in allowing proper clearance when driving and the added weight makes a very considerable change in the braking effect. The motorist who would drive safely must keep these two points constantly in mind.

GOOD RUN OF STRIPERS ON

A good run of striped bass has been on during the past week in the Solano county area, according to the National Automobile club.

(Paid Political Adv.)

Taxpayers should put themselves in the position of employers. When they have a good man and they have his record in office they should retain him and have the advantage of his valuable experience, such as is the case with Judge Rapsey.

Geiger Outlines Atomic Defense

Dr. J. C. Geiger, San Francisco's director of public health, has submitted a lengthy report to Mayor Robinson on possible atomic defense for the city, based on studies he recently completed at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Dr. Geiger told Mayor Robinson that an atomic bomb dropped over San Francisco's city hall would knock out nearly all the city's hospitals and kill nearly everyone within a mile of the blast, and that fire and atomic radiation would destroy about 50 per cent of those within two miles of the explosion.

Plans are being made, Dr. Geiger said, to establish six area stations in school buildings, fully equipped to handle disaster relief. These would be manned by physicians of the County Medical society, Public Health Nurses association and volunteers.

Dr. Geiger's report suggested that the police department prepare plans for mass evacuation and control of hysteria; that the fire department plan for dispersal of its equipment to cope with secondary fires; a bay-area wide study of hospital facilities and stockpiles and atorage areas for bandages, penicillin and aureomycin; and the immediate recruiting of a force of radiation monitors.

Anderson Touring Eighth District

Congressman Jack Z. Anderson, who has been touring the eighth district during the past ten days, finds three issues looming largest in the minds of constituents.

Topping the list is the state of world affairs. Anderson reports there is general agreement in congress that this country should maintain a state of preparedness for any emergency, as there is no sign of cooperation or change of attitude from Russia.

The postal cut, Anderson says, is also bringing strong protest from the district. He declares the cut in postal service was not necessary. The budget, according to Anderson, has only been reduced by one percent, and the blame for curtailed service lies with the postmaster general, who refused to "cut the fat way in heavily loaded higher brackets of the postal department." This, he said, was a political move in a political year. "There is absolutely no need for cutting postal service to save jobs of unnecessary top brass."

The abandonment of Birmingham hospital is an "outrage," according to Anderson. The entire California delegation has protested the closing of this veterans' hospital, designed for the care of permanently disabled veterans. "President Truman has been given the facts," he declared. "The responsibility is now his alone. I hope that the veterans of California will not give up the fight to save this hospital. When President Truman again visits California, he will find that this act has not been accepted by the veterans or the people generally."

Congressman Anderson expects to remain in the district for a few more days fulfilling speaking engagements and meeting with constituents in his office at 201 Bank of America building, San Jose.

TB Survey Now In S. M. County

A survey to determine the number of tuberculosis cases and the danger of tuberculosis in San Mateo county is now underway.

The survey is being made by the Tuberculosis and Health association. Release of provisional figures by the state department of health which listed tuberculosis as ranking first among communicable diseases in California during 1949 prompted the survey.

Tuberculosis killed 2,717 in the state last year. Pneumonia, influenza and syphilis were listed next in order among the "killers."

Survey results will be announced at the annual dinner meeting of the tuberculosis and health organization in Burlingame, June 5.

New Recruiter For SM Navy Post

Chief Electrician's Mate Walter H. Hallfarth, United States Navy, has been assigned to recruiting duty in San Mateo county, and is attached to the armed forces office in San Mateo, California.

Hallfarth is a veteran of almost eighteen years naval service, almost all of which has been spent on board submarines. His first two years were served on board the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, a battleship of the Pacific fleet. During the war, he saw action in the Pacific and Asiatic areas. He also participated in the first two atomic tests held at Bikini lagoon in 1946. At that time he served on board the U.S.S. Searaven, a submarine.

The many ships and stations to which Hallfarth was attached are as follows; Great Lakes Naval Training Center, U.S.S. Pennsylvania, U.S.S. S-28, U.S.S. S-27, U.S.S. Plunger, U.S.S. Whale, U.S.S. Tang, U.S.S. Searaven, U.S.S. Sea Devil, and U.S.S. Sea Fox.

Hallfarth intends to retire in the Peninsula area upon completion of his present duty as a navy recruiter. He invites his old shipmates to drop in for a visit at any time during the day at the navy recruiting office located in the post office building in San Mateo.

Baby Girl, Woman Take Wrong Drink

Confusing the contents of bottles, a baby girl and a Daly City woman this weekend were treated at Junipero Serra hospital.

Two-year-old Diana Elanson, 150 First avenue, drank the contents of a bottle of Clorax Friday afternoon. Her mother found her a few minutes later, and police rushed the child to the hospital. She was treated and released, none the worse for her drink, hospital authorities said.

Mrs. Ralph Patterson, 51, 1118 Brunswick street, drank some Lysol Saturday afternoon. Police were called, and Mrs. Patterson was taken to Junipero Serra where she was treated and released.

PEOPLE ASKED NOW TO RETURN COUNTY TO TURMOIL OF 1938

(From San Mateo Times Friday, May 26)

By GEORGE W. WHITESELL

As we come to the end of another charter story, it is necessary to point out that more has been omitted than has been included. The reason for this has been a paucity of space and an embarrassing richness of material. To those who would pursue a close scrutiny of the period, the yellowing files of the newspapers, libraries, and public records are open.

Only a few of the many names and a few of the more outstanding episodes have been recounted here, but the intent has been to present a broad picture with patches of significant detail.

There has been an objective attempt to show that the pre-charter brand of county government was not desirable and that the charter itself, was no immediate panacea for county government ills. It contained the elements of a successful reform, but this reform was dependent upon co-operative administration.

Many Obstacles

For obvious political reasons, that co-operation was not forthcoming when the charter went into effect. Further vitiating the charter in its beginnings was the futile effort to set up a non-political method of choosing a county executive. These defects were a combined weakness that easily yielded to the elective executive scheme opportunity produced by Col. Frederick Peterson and the whole county government fell into the very pitfall against which Prof. Edwin Cottrell had warned.

Students of government saw this quite clearly and Robert Chester Houston, whose Stanford thesis was an analysis of San Mateo county government, wrote as follows in a 1939 edition of the National Municipal Review.

School Boy Row

Peterson is "a professional politician who has never served in a responsible administrative capacity," and identified him with a "force that was to undo much of the constructive work that has been done."

Peterson retorted by calling Houston a "school boy," but the years were to prove that Houston's summation, like that of Cottrell's, was largely correct. The personnel of the board of supervisors has gone through almost complete changes, but the executive has consistently and invariably antagonized these men with whom he is supposed to work.

Always Right

While the rest of the county has progressed, he has held to the letter of his own interpretation of his powers and has endeavored to enlarge those powers at the expense of the supervisors. Patently, he seems to overlook the conclusion that this behavior indicates that everyone else is always wrong, and Peterson is always right. Perhaps he does not find such a conclusion absurd.

The original bones of contention in the county charter have disappeared along with the motives that created them. Possibly it does not satisfy its creators or the idealists of political economy, but experience since 1948 seems to show that it has reached a level of smooth operation.

Period of Peace

Almost immediately after the voters had rejected Mr. Peterson by abolishing his elective post, a time of peace, quiet and efficiency descended upon the county government. The source of dissension was discredited as the "executive" settled down to an innocuous term as a "lame duck" and only occasionaly intruded his authority in the practical business of local government.

But, with an election in the offing, the old warrior has emerged once more with the same bag of tricks that served him in the past. Again, a manipulation of the charter is sought to hold him in office and this he has achieved one of the outstanding feats of his career.

Double Offer

By means of a group of "Proposition A" charter amendments repeating the familiar attempt to make the executive's office elective and to vest dictatorial powers in him and by a candidacy for supervisor against his one-time friend Edward R. McDonald, Mr. Peterson has placed himself in a unique position.

He has reached an audacious height of political machination by which he is running for two offices at one and the same time.

If "Proposition A" were to win, he would remain county executive at an increased salary and in full command of the entire county government. If they fail, he is still in the running as a supervisor candidate.

Voters Not Fools

The scheme is one of the most ingenious ever perpetrated.

But the ingenuity, one suspects, is wasted. It is hard to believe that the voters of the county, once free of an unworkable form of government, would once more put their heads in the yoke. It is equally hard to believe that they would elect to the board of supervisors a man who has always battled that board and flouted its authority.

It would be foolish to believe that the county and its charter have reached a state of perfection precluding further political battles, but the comparative quiet from 1948 until the present moment shows that substantial gains toward wise and peaceful administration of the county government have been made. From the squabbling of by-gone years the road toward efficient operation is, at last, pointed out.

The forthcoming election will tell if the people of the county want to follow that road—a road that leads away from Mr. Peterson and his aging ambitions.

ONCE AGAIN

AN ATTEMPT IS MADE TO SABOTAGE 20 YEARS PROGRESS TOWARD BETTER COUNTY GOVERNMENT

This Time ...

A political dictator is proposed under the title of County Executive. He would control all budgets and expenditures. He would, single handed, appoint nearly all Commissions, including every single member of the Civil Service Commission and affect the livelihood of 1000 county employees.
